3. In our last annual Report we mentioned that there had been an increase in the average daily number of persons relieved in the workhouses from March, 1893, to March, 1894, as compared with the number in the preceding year, and a decrease in the average daily number of those who received out-door relief.

We have now to report that the returns for the weeks of 1894-95 included in the statement on pages 2 and 3 show a further increase in the average daily number in the workhouses, and a further decrease in the average daily number on out-door relief. The average daily number in the workhouses was 41,069, of those maintained in public institutions and the District School at Trim 1,191, and of those on out-door relief 57,435, making a total of 99,695, which is less by 397 than the total average daily number relieved during the preceding year.

The population of Ireland, as estimated by the Registrar-General, was 4,600,609 in the middle of 1894, and, taking this as the basis of calculation, the average daily number relieved from March, 1894, to March, 1895, amounted to one in every 46 persons, or 2.16 per cent. of the population. The greatest number relieved at any one time during the period was 109,320 (on the 23rd of February last), and this represents 1 in 42, or 2.38 per cent.

4. RELIEF OF DISTRESS.

The average daily number on out-door relief in all Ireland throughout the year 1894-5 taken as a whole was, as has been already observed, less than in the preceding year, but during the last five weeks included in the table on pages 2 and 3, viz.:—the 9th of February to the 9th of March, 1895, there was a considerable increase in the numbers on out-door relief as compared with those in the corresponding weeks of 1894. This increase is attributable to the relief afforded in the west of Ireland in certain districts affected with distress by reason of the partial loss of the potato crop last year, and the following table shows the number of persons receiving relief from the poor rate at the close of each week from the 19th of January to the 30th of March, 1895, in the unions in which the failure of this crop has been more or less severely felt, compared with the numbers on the corresponding dates in the preceding year.

The foregoing table shows that there was a considerable increase each week in the number who received out-door relief in the unions referred to in the preceding paragraph as compared with the corresponding weeks of the previous year, but these statistics cannot be regarded as affording a complete indication of the extent of the destitution arising from the failure of the potato crop, inasmuch as special measures, to which we shall now refer, have been taken by Her Majesty's Government to meet the exceptional distress.

In the early part of June, 1894, our Inspectors in the course of their ordinary duties observed that a considerable amount of damage had been done to the potato crop in the wet and low lying lands by a severe frost which occurred in the preceding month. The young plants appeared to have been cut down and blackened to a large extent, and this injury followed by two months of almost continuous wet weather caused the gravest apprehensions to be entertained as to the result of the crop, and not only the potatoes but the late hay crop and cereals were thought to be in danger.

Fortunately, fine weather set in during August, and continued throughout September when further information from our Inspectors indicated that the grain crops on the whole had not suffered much, and that the hay though inferior in quality was everywhere plentiful. It was reported, however, that disease had attacked the potato crop in July and had spread with great rapidity during the cold and wet weather, and that the damage had gone so far that improvement could not be expected. On light dry soils the crop escaped, but in wet moorlands and badly drained heavy clay lands a great portion of it was absolutely worthless.

Along the east coast, and especially in the Counties of Down, Antrim, Louth, and Derry, the crop was fair, and no doubt the drier climate, the better system of cultivation, the change of seed and due observance of the rotation of crops, were the causes to which the safety of the potatoes in these districts may be principally attributed; but in the west the constant planting of old, worn, seed in the same ground, shallow tillage, imperfect drainage, unfavourable weather, and the exhausting effects of artificial manures, all contributed to render the crop susceptible of disease.

We instructed our Inspectors early in October to again visit all parts of their respective districts, to make full and careful inquiries as to the harvest generally, and to report upon the condition and prospects of the poorer classes.

These inquiries occupied several weeks, and the reports showed that the failure of the potato crop chiefly affected the unions lying west of an imaginary line from Lough Swilly to Cape Clear, the loss on an average in the western unions being very nearly one half, while in parts of North Mayo, Donegal, and Connemara it was greater. In some other unions the crop was partially injured, but the worst effects were undoubtedly in the west. In about seventy unions in all the farmers sustained more or less serious loss in their potato crop.

On the whole the Inspectors' reports indicated that it was unlikely that there would be any material increase in the demand for relief before January or February, but it was expected that from thenceforward to the end of June a good deal of distress would prevail in the west.

By direction of the Government more detailed inquiries were made by the Inspectors during the month of December in the districts where distress was apprehended, and their reports were submitted to Government in the last week of the year. These reports pointed to the conclusion that in some of the unions in which the potato crop had been a partial failure the distress would be of a sporadic rather than a general character, and that although the relief of distress might involve an increase in the poor rates, the increase would probably not be such as the ratepayers would be unable to bear in the majority of the unions affected. Along the seaboard of Donegal, Mayo, and Galway on the other hand, where the effects of the potato disease had been most disastrous, it was apparent that owing to the more widespread character of the distress, and the financially embarrassed condition of the unions, the relief of destitution would involve a strain upon the Poor Laws which the resources of these unions would be wholly unable to meet.

It was therefore considered that so far as the distressed unions were concerned relief works were unavoidable, and it was decided to organize them upon the same system as that adopted by the Government in 1891. Relief works were accordingly commenced, and are at the present time in operation in the following unions:—Ballinrohe, Clifden, Oughterard, Castlebar, Glenties, Bawnboy, Westport, Galway, Belmullet, Killala, Swineford, Ballina, and Milford. Additional works have also been recommended to be opened in some of these unions, and it has been decided to commence works at a later date in certain other districts. About 5,400 families have been recommended for employment, but it may become necessary to place a larger number on the works during the months of May and June.

This measure of relief it was thought might not be applicable to all cases of distress, and in order to enable Guardians to afford relief to persons not employed on the relief works it was considered necessary to bring in a Bill authorizing an extension of out-door relief to destitute land-holders and able-bodied persons. Certain Boards of Guardians have been permitted to act in anticipation of this Bill becoming law, and up to the present we have allowed out-door relief to be afforded in thirty-five unions to all destitute persons requiring it.* The Guardians of these unions have thus been enabled to relieve temporary distress without obliging the occupiers of land to leave their farms and enter the workhouse, and from the moderate amount of relief which has hitherto been afforded we think that in most of the unions referred to the operation of this measure will not involve an undue burden on the rates. The Guardians in a few unions availed themselves of this permission to relieve distress among the labourers in small towns occasioned by the exceptionally severe weather in January and February when nearly all out-door work was suspended for three or four weeks.

In consequence of the increased duties devolving on our Inspectors by reason of the distress referred to it became necessary to appoint, temporarily, three additional Inspectors,* and instructions have been given and arrangements made by which the condition of the people can be closely watched, and the necessity for exceptional relief measures duly reported.

It is hoped that the ordinary poor law supplemented as above indicated will bring relief within the reach of all classes of destitute persons.

5. SEED POTATOES SUPPLY (IRELAND) ACT, 1895.

We shall now describe shortly the operation of the Seed Potatoes Supply Act, 1895, and inform Your Excellency of the proceedings which have been taken to carry out its provisions.

When, in consequence of the failure of the potato crop last year, Her Majesty's Government determined to advance money to Boards of Guardians for the purchase of seed potatoes, we issued a Circular Letter to the Boards of Guardians who took advantage of the Act of 1890, acquainting them with the intention of the Government, and setting forth the conditions on which loans might be obtained for the purchase of seed potatoes to be sold to certain occupiers and cultivators of land who were unable through poverty to procure a supply for themselves; we also forwarded a copy of Rules to be observed when applying for a loan for this purpose. Other Boards of Guardians who expressed a desire to obtain a supply of seed were furnished with the same information. Copies of the Circular Letter and of the Rules referred to will be found in the Appendix.†

These proceedings were taken in anticipation of the Act above mentioned which received the Royal Assent on the 14th of March last. Sixty-five Unions have availed themselves of the Act, and up to the present date we have approved of loans amounting in the aggregate to £59,975.

We estimate the quantity of seed supplied at about 10,000 tons, that is practically one-third of the amount supplied under the Act of 1890. This reduced quantity points to the fact that the failure of the potato crop last year was much less extensive than in 1890, but it is also due, in a considerable degree, to the very great care which Boards of Guardians, guided by experience, have taken in supplying seed to those only who really required it.

It is satisfactory to report that on this occasion the seed has been purchased by the Guardians at about £1 a ton lower than in 1891, and from £3 to £5 a ton lower than in 1880, and this has of course also tended to lessen the amount of loan which would otherwise have been required.

* See paragraph 48, page 54.

† See pages 84-86.

Fifteen persons* were appointed by Your Excellency as Inspectors to assist the Guardians in the selection of seed, and in the arrangements for its inspection, storage, and distribution. The prolonged severe frost in the early part of the year delayed the work of shipment and delivery for a considerable time, and it was not until the second week in March that any progress could be made in this respect.

Our experience of the Seed Potatoes Supply (Ireland) Act, 1890, pointed to the necessity for a careful inspection of the potatoes before being despatched, and with this object nearly the whole of the inspecting staff were engaged at the ports of shipment while the seed was being forwarded to its destination. The seed usually arrived in bulk in waggons and carts, and the inspection in such cases was made while the potatoes were being dressed and placed in bags. When it arrived in bags a certain number of them were taken at hazard and carefully inspected. Very large quantities were rejected, and in the case of a number of shipments the Inspectors were obliged to have the seed hand-picked and re-dressed two or three times before they could report favourably upon it.

By means of this system of inspection we were able in nearly every case to prevent disappointment with the quality of the seed upon delivery, and to secure that it had been actually obtained from the localities in which it was stated to have been grown. The instructions, moreover, which were given to the police to report all shipments of potatoes from Ireland formed an additional security against any attempt to impose locally grown potatoes on Boards of Guardians as Scotch seed, as was alleged to have occurred in 1891. A further inspection of the seed was made, on delivery, by a Committee of the Guardians, assisted by our Inspectors whenever possible. The report of our chief seed Inspector, which we print in the Appendix,† gives full particulars of the working of our system of inspection.

We have made every effort through our Inspectors to induce the Guardians to distribute some new varieties of potato in substitution for the Champion, which does not appear to be so robust and capable of resisting disease as it was formerly. In some cases this has been done, but the people requiring seed under the Act, for the most part, have insisted upon being supplied with the Champion, and no doubt there is a difficulty in finding sufficient quantities of any round potato in the market which combines so many advantages as it does. More than two-thirds of the gross quantity of potatoes supplied were grown in Scotland, the remainder being obtained principally from the north of Ireland.

A Return showing the unions in which the Act has been put in force, the amount of loan approved in each case, and other particulars, will be found in the Appendix.‡

6. SEED POTATOES SUPPLY (IRELAND) ACTS, 1890 AND 1891.

As mentioned in previous Annual Reports these Acts were put into operation in 110 Unions, and the sum which became due to the State in respect of loans advanced for the benefit of Electoral Divisions therein amounted to £240,405.

At the date of our last Report the payments made on account of this indebtedness amounted to £231,495, which left £8,910 due by nine Unions. Six of these have since paid off their loans, and there now remains due by three Unions a balance of £2,517.

7. SEED SUPPLY (IRELAND) ACT, 1880.

Nine Unions still remain indebted to the extent of £12,057 on account of loans obtained under the provisions of the above mentioned Act, no payment having been made by any of them during the last four years.

The total amount of the loans advanced under this Act was £598,306, of which there has been repaid £586,249.

There was a decrease in the numbers of persons who received out-door relief in nine of the weeks included in the table, and an increase in the remaining weeks.

There was an increase of 469 in the number suffering from fever or other infectious diseases, and the

The greatest number of night lodgers relieved during the weeks of 1894-95 given above was 4,389, as against 4,596 in the previous year. The average weekly number was 3,440, being a decrease of 86 on the average of the previous year.

The total number of deaths in the workhouses during the fifty-two weeks comprised in the above table was 9,701, which is a decrease of 75 on the number in the preceding year.

The deaths by small pox amounted to 10, those by fever numbered 248, as against 296, and those by lung disease 1,816 as against 1,876.

15. ORPHANS AND DESERTED CHILDREN.

The number of orphans and deserted children out at nurse from the workhouses in Ireland under the provisions of the Act 39 and 40 Vic., c. 38, on the 9th of March last was 2,225, being a decrease of 84 as compared with the number on the corresponding date in the year 1894.

16. INVALID FOUNDLINGS.

In paragraph 15 of our third Report, that for the year 1874-5, we referred to the survivors of the Invalid Foundlings who before the introduction of the Poor Law system to this country in 1838 had been maintained as nurse children on the revenues of the Dublin Foundling Hospital, now the South Dublin Union Workhouse.

In the year mentioned there were 54 of these foundlings in charge of caretakers or nurses in different parts of the country, and their ages varied from 83 to 4½ years, but the number has since been reduced, by death, to 16. The duty of inspecting them and of reporting upon their condition, from time to time, is performed by our Assistant Secretary, Mr. D. J. MacSheahan. A copy of Mr. MacSheahan's last report, with an extract from the previous report therein referred to, will be found in the Appendix.*

17. EMIGRATION.

We now continue the series of emigration statistics by repeating, with one additional year, the table showing the number of persons assisted by Boards of Guardians to emigrate under the provisions of the Irish Poor Relief Acts and the cost incurred for that purpose in each year, that is to say, for forty-five years ended on the 25th of March last.

18. AMALGAMATION OF UNIONS.

In our last Annual Report we mentioned that we had under consideration the question of dissolving the Strokestown Union and adding the Electoral Divisions comprised therein to adjoining Unions. In view of the marked difference of opinion amongst the members of the Board of Guardians respecting the proposal, and as it does not appear that any desirable result would be attained if the proposed change were effected, we do not feel that we would be justified in disturbing the existing arrangements, and, consequently, do not intend to make any alteration in regard to the Union named.

As regards the applications referred to in our last Report received from the Boards of Guardians of Ballymahon and Glennamaddy Unions, respectively, for the dissolution of those Unions, we have not yet received our Inspector's report of the preliminary inquiry in either of these cases.

19. DISSOLUTION OF BOARD OF GUARDIANS.

During the past year we deemed it necessary, in pursuance of the powers vested in us by the 18th Section of the Poor Relief (Ireland) Act, 1847, to dissolve the Board of Guardians of the Killarney Union, and to place the management of that Union in the hands of paid officers. The letter assigning our reason for this step will be found in the Appendix.*

20. DISTRICT SCHOOLS.

The number of children maintained in the District School at Trim by the Boards of Guardians of the contributory Unions during each week from the 10th of March, 1894, to the 9th of March last is shown in the table on page 3. On the 23rd of the latter month the number in the school was 192, of whom 45 were from Trim, 57 from Drogheda, 37 from Navan, 34 from Kells, and 19 from Dunshaughlin.†

As regards the District School at Glin, referred to in our last Annual Report, the necessary structural alterations of the disused workhouse premises appropriated for the purpose have been completed, the officers of the school appointed, the children from the workhouses of the six contributory unions, viz:—Croom, Kilmallock, Limerick, Listowel, Newcastle, and Rathkeale, have nearly all been transferred, and the school is now in full working order.

21. POOR RELIEF EXPENDITURE.

We now proceed to the statistics arising out of the accounts of the unions for the year ended the 29th of September, 1894, and we deal in the first place with poor relief expenditure.

Year ended 29th September.	Net Annual Value.	Poor Rate levied.	Poor Relief Expenditure during year.						Numbers relieved during year.
			In-Maintenance and Clothing.	Out-door Relief.	Cost of Relief in Blind and Deaf and Dumb Institutions, and of patients in External Hospitals.	Salaries and Rations of Officers.	All other Expenditure.	Total Poor Relief Expenditure.	In work-houses.	Out-door.	In Blind and Deaf and Dumb Institutions.	Total number relieved.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
1894.	14,379,293	897,000	806,200	180,200	15,100	144,480	307,600	639,680	100,004	102,335	908	403,407
1893.	14,154,708	1,009,000	802,630	180,500	18,307	141,500	150,210	652,610	100,000	107,200	908	408,108
Increase.	224,585	—	3,570	—	—	2,980	157,390	87,070	—	—	—	4,300
Decrease.	—	111,992	—	2,300	3,207	—	—	—	—	—	—	—

From the above table it will be seen that there was an increase of £3,882 in "in-maintenance and clothing," of £2,877 in "salaries and rations of officers," and of £7,930 in "all other poor relief expenditure," while there was a decrease of £2,335 in "out-door relief," and of £175 in the "cost of relief in blind and deaf and dumb institutions, and of patients in external hospitals," making a net increase of £12,179 in the expenditure on the relief of the poor during the year 1894 as compared with 1893.

* See page 112.

† An abstract of the School Board accounts for the year ended the 29th of September, 1894, and also an abstract showing the number and classification of the children, are given at page 253 of the Appendix.

* These percentages are calculated upon the expenditure exclusive of the amount thereof exempted from loans, The sums excluded from the poor relief expenditure and from the total expenditure are given in the appendix, (Appendix D, No. 1, Part I.)

It will thus be seen that while the total expenditure for poor relief, medical relief, burial-grounds, sanitary measures, superannuation, payments under the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, payments under the National School Teachers Act and all other purposes was, in 1893, £1,397,032, the expenditure in 1894 was £1,420,215. These sums include expenditure defrayed from loans to the amount of £134,400 in the former year and £122,685 in the latter, so that the actual expenditure from the Poor rate in 1893 amounted to £1,262,572 and in 1894 to £1,297,530.

GRANT FOR MEDICAL AND EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES, AND FOR SALARIES UNDER THE PUBLIC HEALTH (IRELAND) ACT.

The following is a statement of the expenditure from the Parliamentary Grant for medical and educational purposes and for salaries under the "Public Health (Ireland) Act," during the year ended 31st of March, 1894:—

24. MEDICAL CHARITIES ACT.

We next submit to your Excellency a report of the proceedings under this Act for the year ended the 30th of September, 1894.

The annexed table exhibits, in the usual form, the fluctuations in the number of cases in which medical relief was afforded under the Medical Charities Act during each of the last twelve years ended on the 30th of September, for each Province and for the whole of Ireland.

Compared with the year ended in 1893 it will be seen that last year there was in Ulster and Leinster an increase, and in Munster and Connaught a decrease, in the number of cases prescribed for at the dispensaries, while there was an increase in each of the Provinces in the number attended at their own houses.

The net increase in the number of cases treated at dispensaries was 4,489, and the increase in the number attended at their own homes 15,094, making a total increase of 19,583 in the number of cases in which medical relief was afforded by the medical officers of Dispensary Districts.

The number of cases of vaccination during the year ended the 30th of September last, as given above, is classified in the following table under the headings, "Vaccinations and Re-Vaccinations."

26. VACCINATION IN WORKHOUSES.

The number of cases of vaccination performed in work-houses during the same year was 1,217.

27. VACCINE DEPARTMENT OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD.

During the year ended the 31st of March last, 4,839 applications for lymph were received from medical officers of work-houses, dispensaries, and other public institutions, from military medical officers, and from private practitioners, and 23,240 points, and 6,690 tubes charged with lymph were distributed. During the same period 5,973 vaccinations were performed at the stations in Sackville-street and York-street, Dublin.

28. SMALL-POX.

Reports from our Medical Inspectors on the subject of Small-pox in the four provinces of Ireland will be found in the Appendix.* Since December, 1892, we have been in communication with the Sanitary Authorities respecting the probability of Small-pox reaching this country from infected places in England and Scotland, but it was not until June in last year that this disease prevailed to any serious extent in Ireland. Of the four Provinces Leinster has suffered most severely, the outbreak in the City of Dublin having at one period become sufficiently formidable to call for the issue of an Order under section 149 of the Public Health Act of 1878. During the past Winter Dublin became a centre of infection, from which Small-pox has been carried to many parts of Ireland. The disease is one, as a rule, easily recognised, and to the early recognition of the cases thus distributed throughout the country, and the prompt and vigorous measures adopted by the Sanitary Authorities, we are indebted for having so far escaped a general epidemic. The experience gained by many Sanitary Authorities as to the importance of the isolation of first cases and the measures of disinfection to be adopted cannot fail to prove useful in meeting any imported cases of dangerous infectious disease which may be introduced into this country.

Dr. Stafford's report upon Small-pox in Leinster, and especially as to its wide diffusion in the Metropolitan District, deserves the careful consideration of the Sanitary Authorities concerned in carrying out the provisions of the Vaccination Acts and responsible for making suitable provision for the isolation and treatment of infectious diseases. From his report it will be observed that during a period of nine months (from June, 1894, to the 31st March last) 1,251 cases of Small-pox were treated in the Cork-street and Hardwicke Hospitals. The deaths amounted to 138, a mortality of about 11 per cent. Of these 138 deaths 65 per cent. occurred amongst the unvaccinated. Amongst the vaccinated no death occurred in the first five years of life, while amongst the unvaccinated under five years of age 29 cases terminated fatally. In the first ten years of life there was only one death amongst the vaccinated (a child of nine years very imperfectly vaccinated), and amongst the unvaccinated under ten years of age there were 44 deaths.

As bearing upon the subject of vaccination in the Metropolitan Unions the report records that between the 1st of June 1894, and the 31st of March last, the number of children aged between twelve months and twelve years presented to public vaccinators for primary vaccination amounted to 5,976, and of these 4,247 resided in the North Dublin Union.

In illustration of the protective influence of adequate as compared with insufficient primary vaccination, the report shows that amongst the deaths from Small-pox 25 occurred in the vaccinated who presented only one mark, 15 amongst those presenting two marks, two amongst those presenting three marks, and no death occurred amongst those presenting the four marks prescribed by our instructional Circulars as the proper standard of vaccination.

Regarding the protective power of re-vaccination Dr. Stafford mentions the fact that out of 110 persons in actual attendance upon Small-pox patients all save two had been recently re-vaccinated and these two were the only persons who contracted the disease.

Amongst the cases of Small-pox 5 are recorded in which the patients had previously suffered from the disease.

In Dr. Clibborn's report upon Small-pox in Ulster he records 64 cases, amongst which there were 11 deaths. In referring to the subject of the relationship existing between the number and character of vaccination marks and the occurrence of Small-pox, Dr. Clibborn mentions that in Ulster in no single instance has a case of Small-pox been observed where there were 4 typical vaccine marks, that there was only one case in which there were three marks and the disease in this instance was of the "very mildest form." Where there were two good marks the disease was as a rule discrete, where there were two faint and indifferent marks it was much more severe. Where there was only one mark the disease was always severe and generally confluent. Where no sign of primary vaccination was present death occurred in all cases save one, and no death occurred where there was even one vaccine mark.

In the Province of Munster, Dr. Browne's district, there were only 6 cases of the disease during the year under review.

In the Province of Connaught 12 cases of Small-pox occurred with one death. The details will be found in the report of our Inspector, Dr. Clements.

The number of deaths in workhouses from small-pox and the number of cases of the disease treated by dispensary medical officers in each of the last thirty-one years are given in the following table:—

30. ENTERIC FEVER.

Outbreaks of Enteric fever have occurred in rural districts which could not be attributed to polluted water supplies or to defects in drainage or sewerage. Our Medical Inspectors who inquired into the facts believe that such outbreaks were caused by the distribution of specifically infected milk. We have warned the Sanitary Authorities in whose districts the disease has prevailed as to the danger of permitting milk from infected houses to be sent out.

31. SCARLET FEVER.

There were 3,034 cases of scarlet fever treated by medical officers of dispensary districts in 1894 as compared with 1,516 cases in 1893, being an increase of 1,518.

32. CHOLERA.

We referred in our last Report to the precautionary measures adopted to meet the danger of a possible extension of Cholera to this part of the United Kingdom. We are glad to be able to state that during the past year no case has been imported into Ireland. Upon one occasion a ship, bound for Belfast, put into a foreign port to land a case of Cholera which had occurred on board. We warned the Belfast Sanitary Authorities—Urban and Rural—and, before the arrival of the ship, all necessary preparations had been completed at the intercepting hospital provided for the port of Belfast. The vessel was boarded immediately upon her arrival, and, as no sickness had arisen since the landing of the case of Cholera referred to, the ship was detained only long enough to admit of her thorough disinfection. In our correspondence with Sanitary Authorities we have continued to draw attention to local defects requiring amendment, and, in several inland towns, progress has been made in improving water supplies and completing sanitary works calculated to place the districts of the Sanitary Authorities in a better position for resisting the outbreak and progress of infectious diseases. A return showing the measures adopted for the protection of our ports against the introduction of cases of sea-borne Cholera is given in the Appendix.*

33. INFLUENZA.

Influenza has continued to prevail during the past year, but, although it caused much suffering during the severe winter months, it would not appear to have sensibly increased the death rate.

34. INFECTIOUS DISEASE (NOTIFICATION) ACT, 1889.

This Act extends to any Urban or Rural Sanitary District after the adoption thereof. The Authority of any such District may adopt the Act by a resolution passed after special notice to each member. The resolution, when adopted, must be duly published for at least a month before it can come into operation, and a copy must be forwarded to us. The Act provides that where an inmate of any building used for human habitation within a district in which it has been adopted is suffering from an infectious disease to which the Act applies, unless such building is a hospital in which persons suffering from an infectious disease are received, notice shall be sent to the Medical Officer of Health of the District, or, in default, the person by whom the notice should be given, as required by the Act, is liable to a penalty. The infectious diseases to which the Act applies are named in Section 6, but Sanitary Authorities are empowered, by Section 7, to order, by resolution, that the Act shall apply, within their respective districts, to other infectious diseases; any such order, or any revocation or variation thereof, must receive our approval.

Up to the end of the year 1894, 15 Rural and 9 Urban Sanitary Authorities had adopted the provisions of the Act, and, during that year, 183 and 4,915 cases of infectious disease were notified in the Rural and Urban Districts referred to, respectively. A table showing the number of cases notified in each of these Districts will be found in the Appendix.*

Copies of an Order and of a Circular issued by us in relation to the Act shortly after it received the Royal Assent will be found at pages 71 and 78-83 of our Eighteenth Annual Report (Report for 1889-90).

40. SEWERAGE AND WATER SUPPLY.

Our report upon Public Health is continued from the last annual Report. Details were given therein of the operations in regard to sewerage and water-supply under the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, in continuation of the detail of proceedings under the Act of 1874; the extent of those operations is still in some degree measured in rural sanitary districts by the number of the Orders under seal fixing the areas of charge, and the loans borrowed for these purposes through the Public Works Commissioners.

The number of such Orders issued each year since 1875-6 is shown in the following table:—

Year.	Number of Orders issued declaring areas of charge for sanitary expenses.
1875-6, . .	79
1876-7, . .	89
1877-8, . .	122
1878-9, . .	117
1879-80, . .	126
1880-1, . .	103
1881-2, . .	79
1882-3, . .	83
1883-4, . .	79
1884-5, . .	102

1888-9, . .	65
1889-90, . .	48
1890-1, . .	49
1891-2, . .	49
1892-3, . .	48
1893-4, . .	89
1894-5, . .	60
Total, . .	1,628

It will be seen from the foregoing that 1,628 Orders fixing areas of charge for sewerage or water-supply, or both, have been issued during the last twenty years, the number for the year from the 26th of March, 1894, to the 25th of March, 1895, being 60, which were issued to the Guardians of 43 unions.

The above table relates only to rural sanitary districts. In urban districts all sanitary expenses are chargeable upon funds levied from the whole district.

41. BURIAL GROUNDS.

As in the case of sewerage and water-supply, referred to in the preceding paragraph, the extent of the operations of boards of guardians, acting as burial boards, in connection with the provision of new, and the maintenance of existing, burial grounds is, perhaps, best indicated by the number of Orders under seal determining areas of charge for expenses incurred for these purposes. The number of such Orders issued by us in each year, ended 25th of March, since the passing of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, is as follows :—

Year.	Number of Orders issued declaring areas of charge for burial ground expenses.
1878-9, . .	5
1879-80, . .	14
1880-1, . .	13

1888-9, . .	11
1889-90, . .	12
1890-1, . .	10
1891-2, . .	10
1892-3, . .	3
1893-4, . .	6
1894-5, . .	7
Total, . .	185

The Orders made by us in the year ended 31st of March, 1895, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act which relate to the discontinuance of burials in old-burial grounds, have been as follow :—

42. TECHNICAL INSTRUCTION ACT, 1889.

This Act provides that rural and urban sanitary authorities may supply, or aid the supply of, technical or manual instruction out of the local rate—which, in the case of rural authorities, is defined to be the rate out of which special expenses under the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, are payable. Where rural authorities take advantage of the Act, we declare the area of charge for any expenses which may be incurred by them for the purpose; and we have already—by Orders under Seal bearing date, respectively, the 26th of February, 1894, and 7th of June, 1894—declared areas of charge for such expenses in the Galway and Gort unions.

43. POST OFFICE ACT, 1891.

This Statute enables rural sanitary authorities to assist in the provision of postal or telegraphic facilities for contributory places within their districts by undertaking to pay to the Postmaster-General any loss he may sustain in providing such facilities—the costs of the undertakings being chargeable as special expenses on the contributory places concerned.

These provisions have already been availed of by the Athlone, Belmullet, Inishowen, Magherafelt, Milford, Mullingar, Newcastle, Strabane, Stranorlar, Westport, and Wexford rural sanitary authorities, and we have made, in all, fifteen Orders under seal fixing the areas of charge for the costs, if any, of the undertakings given by these authorities, respectively, to the Postmaster-General. The number of such Orders made each year since the passing of the Act is shown in the following table :—

44. LOANS.

In both urban and rural sanitary districts a considerable part of the expenditure on sewerage, water-supply, and other local improvements is defrayed by means of loans to the sanitary authorities which we sanction in pursuance of section 237 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878.

In the nineteen years ended the 31st of March, 1894, loans under the Sanitary Acts were sanctioned as follows:—

45. LABOURERS ACTS.

It will be seen from paragraph 42 of our last report that up to the 31st March, 1894, the total number of cottages which had been authorized to be provided under these Acts was 12,937. During the past year this number has been increased by 1,126, the total number now finally sanctioned being 14,063. We have, in addition, made provisional orders for 513 houses, but these orders are either not yet absolute or are awaiting confirmation by Orders in Council.

During the twelve months ended the 31st March, 1895, we received petitions for confirmation of improvement schemes from 30 Unions, the number of houses proposed to be provided thereby being 1,531; and during the same period thirty-four local inquiries were held by our inspectors into applications embracing 1,917 houses, 693 of these being included in applications which remained undisposed of at the close of the previous year. The number remaining over this year is 307.

We have made orders in pursuance of the power conferred on us by Section 8 of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1891, giving our Inspector in charge of the District authority to exercise all the powers and to perform all the duties of the sanitary authority, as provided for in the Labourers Acts, in the Strabane, Stranorlar, and Cootehill Unions, the Boards of Guardians of those unions having declined to carry out improvement schemes as recommended by the Inspector after due local inquiry. Copies of these orders will be found in the Appendix.* Inquiries have also been held in the following Unions in which the Boards of Guardians had refused to act upon representations made to them under the Acts:—Castleblayney, Coleraine, Downpatrick, Lisnaskea, Londonderry, Magherafelt, Omagh, and Rathdown. Of these, the Guardians of Castleblayney and Magherafelt Unions have decided to act upon the Inspector's report and are now making improvement schemes accordingly; the Guardians of Londonderry and Rathdown Unions have the question again under consideration; in Coleraine and Downpatrick Unions the Inspector did not consider that an improvement scheme was necessary so far as the particular applications inquired into were concerned; and in the cases of Lisnaskea and Omagh Unions the reports of the Inspector have not yet been received.

The following table shows the unions from which petitions for confirmation of improvement schemes were received by us from the inception of these Acts up to the 31st of March, 1895, the number of houses applied for in each case, the number finally authorized up to that date, the number sanctioned by orders which have not yet become absolute, and the number included in applications which remain to be disposed of. The amounts of the loans sanctioned by the Treasury for the purposes of the Acts are likewise given. A Map of Ireland is contained in the Appendix* showing the unions in which cottages have been authorized, and the number finally sanctioned in each case.

Following the course adopted in previous Reports, we now give tables showing what has been done by sanitary authorities under the improvement schemes authorized, and what is proposed to be done under further improvement schemes.

Table A shows that out of the 14,063 houses authorized, 10,848 have been provided, of which 10,788 are actually let, and that 802 others are at present in progress or contracted for. The aggregate monthly rent of the cottages built in each union and the amount of such rent in arrear are also shown.

Table B shows that further improvement schemes have been or are about to be submitted to us, proposing to provide 2,132 new cottages, 615 additional half-acre allotments to cottages already sanctioned, and 8 acres 1 rood 25 perches for garden allotments. The estimated cost of these schemes is £292,723.

46. HOUSING OF THE WORKING CLASSES ACTS, 1890 AND 1893.

In paragraph 43 of our last Report we referred to the fact that a loan of £5,000 was granted to the Dublin Urban Sanitary Authority to defray the cost of acquiring the property rights in the "White's Lane Area." After the Arbitrator made his award it was found that this amount was wholly insufficient, and application was made for a further loan of £5,000, which, after the requisite local Inquiry, was duly sanctioned. The Urban Authority propose to erect Working Class Lodging Houses on the cleared area under Part III. of the Act, and a loan of £12,000 has been sanctioned for this purpose.

The Dublin Urban Sanitary Authority have been granted a loan of £12,000, also, for the purpose of providing Working Class Lodging Houses in Blackhall Place. The other Local Authorities who have obtained loans for Working Class Lodging Houses are, Cashel Urban Sanitary Authority, £980; Limerick Urban Sanitary Authority, £2,000; New Ross Urban Sanitary Authority, £578 16s. 4d.; and the Town Commissioners of Mullingar three separate loans of £350, £200, and £1,100. These sums added to £102,921 19s. 8d., mentioned under this head in our last Report, make the total amount of the loans sanctioned for the erection of houses for the working classes residing in towns, £132,430 16s.

47. TOWNS IMPROVEMENT (IRELAND) ACT, 1854.

We have approved of the adoption of the provisions of the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854, in the Town of Youghal, and fixed the number of Commissioners to be elected at twenty-one. The Town had hitherto been under the Act, 9 George IV., cap. 82, and was of somewhat restricted area, but the boundaries of the Town as now constituted under the Towns Improvement Act have been considerably extended.

The Town Commissioners of Holywood, of Bangor, and of Belturbet, respectively, desire to extend the boundaries of these Towns, and we have the proposals at present under consideration.

48.—AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS.

In addition to the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of Boards of Guardians, particulars of which are summarized on page 20 and given in detail in the Appendix,* the accounts of the undermentioned bodies were, as usual, audited by our Auditors during the year, pursuant to Statute:—

Grand Juries.

The governing bodies of Towns, excepting those of Cork, Kilkenny, and Waterford (section 11 of the Act 34 & 35 Vic. cap. 109).

All urban and rural Sanitary Authorities.

- The Governors of District lunatic asylums.
- " Board of management of the Galway hospital.
- " Trim District School board.
- Pier Authorities under the Shannon Act, 1885.
- The Rathmines and Pembroke Main Drainage board.
- " Blackrock and Kingstown Drainage board.
- " Collector-General of rates of the city of Dublin.
- " Dublin Port and Docks board, and
- " Commissioners of Charitable donations and bequests.

The returns of local taxation in Ireland annually presented by us to Parliament, contain particulars of the receipts and expenditure of Grand Juries, and of the governing bodies of Towns; and the receipts and expenditure of the Governors of lunatic asylums will be found in the annual reports of the Inspectors of lunatics.

The accounts of Educational Endowments, for the management of which schemes have been framed under the Educational Endowments (Ireland) Act, 1885, are also audited by an officer of our department, excepting in some cases where we approve of the appointment of local auditors.

49. DEPARTMENTAL ARRANGEMENTS.

We have already referred to the fact that it became necessary to appoint three additional Inspectors temporarily, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on our permanent Inspectors by reason of the distress in the western Unions. The temporary Inspectors so appointed are:—Dr. D. Edgar Flinn, Mr. D. O'C. Donelan, and Dr. F. R. O'Grady.

The following fifteen gentlemen, appointed by Your Excellency, acted under our instructions as Inspectors for the purpose of assisting Boards of Guardians in the selection, inspection, storage, and distribution of seed under the Seed Potatoes Supply (Ireland) Act, 1895, viz.:—R. H. Pringle, B. Crofton, J. J. Burke, A. L. Crean, J. B. Dillon, P. V. Guiry, W. Jones, E. J. O'Malley, T. K. O'Mahony, T. D. Clifford, M. J. Nolan, D. Coates, W. H. G. Eyre, C. O'B Jameson, and W. Coghlan.

One of our auditors, Mr. C. Pelly, having resigned during the past year, his place has been filled by the appointment of Mr. D. B. Sheehan.

We have the honour to be

Your Excellency's obedient servants,

JOHN MORLEY.

I.—ORDERS.

No. 1.—GENERAL ORDER ASSESSING upon CONTRIBUTORY UNIONS under the National School Teachers Act their respective proportions of Results Fees for the year ended 31st March, 1895.

To the GUARDIANS of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule to this Order; to the Treasurer of each of such Unions; and to all persons whom it may concern :

WHEREAS We, the Local Government Board for Ireland, have received from the Commissioners of National Education in Ireland an estimate for the year ending the 31st day of March, 1895, of the full amount payable as Results Fees in respect of Pupils attending the National Schools in each of the Unions which have become contributory Unions under an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act to provide for additional Payments to Teachers of National Schools in Ireland :—"

AND WHEREAS the Unions which have become contributory under the said Act are those of which the names are placed in the first column of the Schedule hereto ;

AND WHEREAS by the said Act it is enacted that the Commissioners of National Education shall require the Local Government Board in every year to provide a sum equal to one-third of such full amount payable as Results Fees as aforesaid, and that the said Local Government Board shall thereafter provide such sum in the manner by the said Act prescribed; and the Local Government Board have received from the Commissioners of National Education a requisition to provide, in the year 1894-95, a sum equal to one-third of such full amount aforesaid:

AND WHEREAS it is by the said Act further enacted that upon the receipt of every such estimate the Local Government Board shall by an Order under their Seal assess upon each contributory union a sum equal to one-third of the full amount payable as results fees in respect of pupils attending the National Schools in such contributory union, and shall transmit a copy of such Order to the guardians and likewise to the treasurer of such contributory union, stating the amount so assessed on such contributory union:

AND WHEREAS it is by the said Act further enacted that forthwith on the receipt of such Order by the treasurer of any contributory union he shall, out of the funds then lying in his hands to the credit of the guardians of such union, or, if there shall be then no sufficient assets, out of the moneys next received by him and placed to the credit of such guardians, pay over the amount so assessed on such contributory union to the Bank of Ireland, to be there placed to the credit of the Commissioners of Education to a separate account, to be entitled "The Results Fees Account"; and that the guardians of such contributory union shall in their account with the electoral divisions of such contributory union debit each electoral division with its proportion of the said amount according to the net annual value for the time being of the property rateable to the rates for the relief of the destitute poor in each such division:

AND WHEREAS it is provided by the said Act that if in any financial year the sum provided by the Local Government Board in respect of any contributory union exceeds the amount required for the purposes of the said Act in such year in respect of such contributory union, such overplus shall be carried to the credit of the next following financial year, and in such last-mentioned year only such sum shall be raised by assessment on such contributory union as shall be necessary in addition thereto to make up the sum which would in the ordinary course under the said Act be required to be provided by the Local Government Board in respect of such contributory union in such next following financial year:

AND WHEREAS we have received from the Commissioners of National Education a statement of the surplus of previous assessments, as set forth in the fourth column of the Schedule hereto:

NOW THEREFORE, in pursuance of the powers vested in us by the said Act, We, the Local Government Board for Ireland, do hereby assess upon each of the unions named in the first column of the Schedule hereto the amount set opposite to its name in the fifth column of the Schedule, the sum so assessed being equal in each case to one-third of the full amount payable as Results Fees as aforesaid by the union assessed, less the amount of surplus (if any) of previous assessments set forth in the fourth column of the said Schedule.

No. 2.—RATE BOOKS.

Local Government Board, Dublin.
11th September, 1894.

SIR,

Referring to the circular letter of the 15th of February last on the subject of the preparation of union rate books, I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to state that where the particulars as to land and buildings forming one holding are entered on separate lines in the rate book in the manner indicated in that circular, the number in the first column of the rate book opposite to the word "land" and that opposite to the description of the buildings should be the same, the number and its repetition being, for convenience, distinguished in some way, such as by the letters a and b, thus:— $\frac{a}{b}$. If, however, the land and buildings separately rated are, in any case, in the occupation of different persons, separate numbers should be given.

Land and buildings forming one holding and having one number in the rate book, as above referred to, should, in accordance with the Board's Order† dated the 10th instant, a copy of which is sent herewith, be counted as only one rating for the purposes of their Order of the 23rd of September last fixing the scale of remuneration for duties under the Representation of the People Acts.

No. 3.—HIRING OUT OF PAUPER CHILDREN.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
16th October, 1894.

SIR,

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to state that their attention has been called to the practice which prevails in many Unions in Ireland with regard to the hiring out of pauper children; and the conclusion which the Board have arrived at, after reviewing the reports received from their Inspectors during the past year on this subject, is that children as a general rule are sent out to service at too early an age, that there is often a want of proper care in obtaining suitable places for them, and that in many Unions there is not sufficient inquiry made as to the care and treatment which they receive from their employer during the first years of service.

* Sent to the Governing Body of each Municipal Town in Ireland.

The Board desire to impress on the Guardians that a very great responsibility rests on them in selecting the first situation for Workhouse children who are about to make a start in life, as the treatment and teaching which a child receives at the outset of its career cannot fail materially to affect its future welfare. It frequently happens that the class of persons who apply to the Guardians for servants are those who, owing to their condition of life, are unable to pay the current rate of wages, or to obtain servants elsewhere, and it, therefore, behoves the Guardians to be doubly careful in considering all applications made to them for the hire of children; and the Board would urge on the Guardians that, in determining the suitability of applicants, something more should be required from the employer than a mere testimonial of respectability, and that the capability of the child to discharge the duties it will be expected to perform, the ability of the employer to properly maintain the child, and inculcate habits of industry, together with the associations calculated to influence the child's character, should all be made the subject of careful inquiry in every case before the proposal of any employer is acceded to.

The Board would further desire to state that, in their opinion, it is not advisable to send any boy to service under fourteen years of age, and they would suggest that no girl should be placed out under fifteen years of age, inasmuch as the education which children receive during the later years of their school life is all important to them and may fit them for positions which they could not hope to occupy if their education was interrupted at an earlier period.

The Board find that in some Unions no formal agreement is entered into between the Guardians on behalf of the children and the children's employers, and they think that in all cases such agreements should be perfected. The Board transmit a copy of a form which might be adopted for this purpose.

It is highly desirable that, during the first year of service at least, the child should be visited by the Relieving Officer or some other person deputed to do so, in order that the Guardians may be informed as to the progress of the child, and respecting the manner in which it is treated. The Guardians will observe that a clause consenting to this inspection is inserted in the agreement which is to be signed by the employer.

The Board trust that this important subject will receive the Guardians' careful attention. It may, at first sight, appear to be opposed to the ratepayers' interest to keep children in the Workhouse after they reach an age when employment can be obtained for them outside, but the Board believe it will be found in the end to be more to the advantage of the ratepayers and the children to maintain them until their education is completed, and a suitable situation offers, than to send them out, without full deliberation, to any respectable person willing to employ them.

NO. 5.—NATIONAL SCHOOL TEACHERS (IRELAND) ACT, 1875.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

Sir,

31st December, 1894.

In pursuance of the 4th section of "The National School Teachers (Ireland) Act, 1875," the Local Government Board for Ireland transmit to you herewith, to be laid before the Board of Guardians of Union, the notice which they are required by that section to transmit, on or before the 1st day of January, to the Guardians of every union which shall not at such time be a contributory union within the meaning of the Act.

The notice now transmitted, as in the case of the notice which was transmitted on the 30th December, 1893, requires the Guardians within forty days from the receipt thereof to inform the Local Government Board whether, for the purpose of increasing the remuneration of the teachers of National Schools within the union, they are willing to make their union a contributory union within the meaning of the Act, and the Guardians will observe therefore that by the present notice they are called upon, in pursuance of the requirement of the Act, to decide whether they will become contributory for the year 1895-96 (that is for the year commencing on the 1st April next), and subsequent years, until the resolution to contribute be legally revoked.

The Board forwarded with their circular of the 30th August, 1875, a copy of the Act, and of various other documents relating to this subject, and they desire to refer the Board of Guardians to that circular and the documents which accompanied it for any information which they may require before replying to the enclosed notice.

The Board have to add that the Commissioners of National Education have furnished them with an estimate of the probable amount which will be payable by the Guardians of the several unions in results fees to teachers of National Schools within the respective unions for the year 1895-96, and the liability which, according to this estimate, the Guardians will incur by making their union a contributory one is not expected to exceed £

In the event of the Guardians resolving to become a contributory union within the meaning of the Act, you should, immediately upon the passing of such resolution, forward a copy of the same signed by the Chairman as well as by yourself to the Commissioners of National Education, and to the Local Government Board, in accordance with the terms of Section 6 of the Act.

SEED POTATOES.*

No. 6.—INSTRUCTIONS relative to the RULES to be observed in regard to the supply of SEED POTATOES by BOARDS of GUARDIANS to persons within their respective Unions.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

SIR,

21st December, 1894.

The Local Government Board for Ireland desire to inform the Board of Guardians that Her Majesty's Government have had under consideration the important question of providing in certain cases a supply of seed potatoes for occupiers and cultivators of land in Electoral Divisions where they may be unable through poverty, and in consequence of the failure of the potato crop this year, to procure a supply for themselves.

Meanwhile to prevent delay the Government are prepared to advance money without interest to Guardians for the purchase of seed potatoes, to be sold to occupiers or cultivators of land valued at not more than £15, in any Electoral Division in which the Guardians believe that such persons are generally unable to procure an adequate supply of seed potatoes.

The quantity of seed to be sold to any occupier of land valued at and under £15 shall not exceed 12 cwt., and the Guardians may also sell an amount not exceeding 6 cwt. to any person who cultivates for his own use land under a contract made by him with the tenant of the land for the purpose of growing potatoes, provided that upon any such sale the Guardians shall obtain such security as they may think sufficient for the payment of the price of the seed sold. An abatement of one-fifth shall be made in the price of all seed which is paid for in cash.

It is intended to propose to Parliament that the amount due to the Guardians on account of any seed sold shall be paid by two equal annual instalments, the first of which will be leviable as a special rate with the first ordinary poor rate made after the 1st July, 1895, and the second instalment as a special rate with the first poor rate made after 1st July, 1896.

The loan will be repayable by the Guardians to the Board of Works by two equal instalments, the first of which shall be paid on the 1st August, 1896, and the second on the 1st August, 1897.

The Local Government Board forward herewith a copy of the rules which must be observed by the Guardians in order to obtain a loan for the purpose of supplying seed, and you are hereby required, in pursuance of these rules, (1) to summon, by notice in writing to each Guardian, a special meeting of the Board of Guardians to be held within fourteen days from receipt of this letter, for the purpose of considering whether there is in the Union any Electoral Division in which the occupiers of land are generally unable, "through poverty and the extent of the failure of the potato crop," to procure an adequate supply of seed potatoes; and (2) if the Guardians, at the meeting referred to, be of opinion that for the reasons mentioned they should apply for a loan for any Electoral Division or Divisions, a second special meeting of the Guardians should be summoned for that day fortnight, of which due notice should be given to each Guardian, in order to ascertain to what extent a supply of seed is required in the various Electoral Divisions of the Union, and to determine the amount of the loan which should be applied for.

* See also Appendix A. IIL, pages 102-117.

The Relieving Officer of the Electoral Division, in respect of which it is proposed to apply for a loan, should immediately be supplied by the Clerk of the Union with blank requisition forms, as prescribed in the Rules, to contain the names and full description of persons entitled to receive, and who may desire to obtain seed; and these forms, completed and signed by each Relieving Officer, should be submitted to the Board of Guardians at the second meeting hereinbefore referred to.

If the Relieving Officer's district is too extensive to enable him to discharge this duty in every Division in his district, the Guardians may nominate members of their own Board, or appoint such other persons as they may think fit, to assist in the preparation of these lists.

To assist the Relieving Officers or other persons appointed in preparing the lists of those occupiers of land in his district entitled to, and who may require to obtain seed, a form of notice has been prescribed which should be circulated and posted in each Electoral Division, with the object of informing persons interested of the intention of the Government, and of the course they should adopt to have such applications as they may make brought before the Board of Guardians in proper time.

If the Guardians, at the first meeting hereinbefore referred to, consider that a loan will be required for any Division or Divisions, the Clerk of the Union should inform the Local Government Board by the first post thereafter, stating the number of Divisions in respect of which it is intended to make application for such loan, in order that a supply of forms of requisition and of notice may be sent to him.

The lists when prepared should be returned to the Clerk of the Union on or before the day fixed by the Guardians for the consideration of the question as to the amount of loan to be applied for. When the Guardians shall have determined the amount of loan required an estimate should be prepared in the prescribed form, and be transmitted to the Local Government Board, showing the sum the Guardians desire to borrow in respect of each or any Electoral Division. The Guardians will observe that it is provided in the rules that applications for loans under the Act must be made not later than the 15th February next.

In framing the estimate the expense of carriage, storage, and distribution should be allowed for. On receiving the estimate it shall have the attention of this Board, who will address the Board of Guardians again on the subject.

A Bill confirming the proceedings under this circular, and indemnifying the Guardians for having acted in compliance therewith, will be introduced by Government.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

THOS. A. MOONEY,

Secretary.

To the Clerk———*Union.

* Sent to the Clerk of each of the 110 Unions which had obtained loans under the Seed Potatoes Supply (Ireland) Act, 1890. For list of Unions see pages 104-113 of the Board's Twentieth Annual Report. It was also sent to the Unions of Carrickmacross, Carrick-on-Suir, Kilkenny, Limerick, Londonderry, and Mullingar. See observations under clause 5 (page 8) of this report.

ENCLOSURE TO THE FOREGOING.

RULES to be OBSERVED by BOARDS of GUARDIANS in carrying into effect the provisions of the LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD'S CIRCULAR LETTER of the 21st December, 1894, on the SUBJECT of SEED POTATOES.

1. Immediately upon receipt of the Circular, the Clerk of each Union shall, by notice to each Guardian in the Form A hereinafter set forth, summon a special meeting of the Board of Guardians to be held within fourteen days from the receipt of the Circular, for the purpose of considering whether there is in the Union any Electoral Division in which the occupiers of land are generally unable, through poverty and the extent of the failure of the potato crop, to procure an adequate supply of seed potatoes.

2. If the Guardians of any Union, present at a meeting held under the foregoing Rule, consider that there is any Electoral Division in the Union in which the occupiers of land are generally unable for the reasons aforesaid to procure an adequate supply of seed potatoes, they should forthwith adopt a resolution, in the Form B hereinafter set forth, to the effect that at a meeting to be held on that day fortnight they shall apply for a loan for the use of such Electoral Division or Divisions. They should then direct the Relieving Officers to make immediate arrangements for receiving the applications of persons requiring seed, and they should nominate or appoint other persons to assist in this duty if they consider that the Relieving Officers cannot undertake it in all parts of their respective districts. It shall thereupon be the duty of the Clerk of the Union to at once proceed as follows:—

- (a) He shall issue to each Guardian of the Union a notice, in the Form C hereinafter set forth, of the meeting at which it is proposed to apply for a loan.
- (b) He shall cause to be posted throughout the Electoral Division or Divisions for the use of which it is proposed to apply for a loan, a notice, in the Form D hereinafter set forth, informing occupiers and cultivators of land in such Electoral Division or Divisions that the Guardians propose to apply for a loan, and that those who desire to purchase seed potatoes should apply to the Relieving Officer of the district in which the Electoral Division is situate, or to such other person to be named in such notice as the Guardians may appoint.
- (c) He shall transmit to the Relieving Officer (or other person appointed by the Guardians) for the Electoral Division or Divisions for the use of which it is proposed to apply for a loan, a supply of requisition lists, in the Forms E¹ and E² hereinafter set forth, in which shall be submitted to the Board of Guardians the names of and other prescribed particulars regarding the persons who desire to purchase seed. The requisition lists, when duly filled with the necessary particulars regarding the persons for whom seed is required, shall be returned to the Clerk of the Union by the Relieving Officer (or other person appointed) for each Electoral Division concerned on or before the day of the meeting at which the amount of the loan to be applied for is to be determined.
- 3. The time within which applications are to be made to the Local Government Board for loans under the Act shall be not later than the 15th day of February, 1895.*

4. Applications to the Local Government Board for loans must be accompanied by:—

- (a) Lists of the persons to whom the Guardians making the application propose to sell seed potatoes. Separate lists must be furnished for each Electoral Division, in the Forms F hereinafter set forth, and, if possible, be signed by the Guardian or Guardians of the Division. Each list shall also be signed by the Clerk of the Union, and shall be further vouched by the signature of the Relieving Officer of the district in which the Electoral Division is comprised who shall be held strictly responsible for the accuracy of the particulars contained in the list.

* The time was subsequently extended in the case of some Unions.

- (b) An estimate, in the Form G hereinafter set forth, showing the sum which the Guardians propose to borrow in respect of each Electoral Division, and the several other particulars prescribed in the form.

Provided, that Boards of Guardians shall at all times afford the Local Government Board such further information as they may require in respect of the persons to whom it is proposed to sell seed potatoes.

5. All sums received by Boards of Guardians as the price of seed paid for in cash shall be paid to the Board of Works by cheque forwarded on the day of ordinary meeting of the Board of Guardians next following the receipt of such sums by them. With each cheque so forwarded the Clerk of the Union shall transmit to the Board of Works an account, in the Form H hereinafter set forth, of the sums included in such cheque.

6. Notice that the Guardians are prepared to issue seed potatoes shall be given to each person who is to be supplied therewith, in the Form I hereinafter set forth.

7. No seed potatoes supplied by Guardians shall be delivered to any person other than the occupier or cultivator of the land in which the seed is to be sown, nor without the production by such occupier or cultivator of the notice received by him in the said Form I, nor without an acknowledgment of the receipt of the seed being obtained from such occupier in the Form J 1, or cultivator in the Form J 2 hereinafter set forth. For the purpose of properly identifying such occupiers and cultivators the Poor Rate Collector of each Electoral Division, or, should he be incapacitated by illness or otherwise, such person as the Guardians may appoint to act in his stead, shall attend the distribution of seed for that Division; and the Guardians shall take all such further steps as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of such identification.

8. Immediately after the distribution of seed in any Electoral Division the Guardians shall forthwith publish lists, in the Form L hereinafter set forth, showing the persons in the Division to whom seed has been supplied and the other particulars prescribed in the form.

9. The manner in which the notices in the Forms D and L prescribed by this Order shall be published shall be according to the accustomed mode of giving public notice in Electoral Divisions, namely, by posting such notices on or near to the principal doors of every Church or Chapel in the Division to which it refers.

10. No part of a loan obtained for one Electoral Division may, under any circumstances, be applied to the use of another Electoral Division; and no portion of such loan shall be expended for any purpose or purposes other than those specified by the Local Government Board's Circular Letter of 21st December, 1894, accompanying these Rules.

11. The Local Government Board reserve to themselves the right to make any further rules they may deem necessary with regard to any matter connected with the distribution of the seed or repayment of the loan.

No. 7.—PURCHASE AND INSPECTION OF SEED.

Local Government Board,

Sir,

Dublin, 7th January, 1895.

Referring to the Board's Circular letter of the 21st ultimo on the subject of the Seed Potatoes Supply this year, I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to state that they trust the Guardians will use the utmost care to secure sound seed of a variety suitable to the district, and the Board think it right to inform the Guardians that loans cannot be sanctioned for the purchase of any seed which has been grown in Ireland in or near a district affected by the disease.

While the Board of Guardians will be responsible for the purchase and selection of the seed, the Government propose to appoint Inspectors to advise them with reference to the selection of suitable varieties, in the choice of districts from which the seed should come, with reference to storage, and also for the inspection of the seed, so as to ensure its being true to quality, and, as far as possible, to guarantee its coming from the localities in which it was said to be grown, and the Board will, in the course of a few days, inform the Guardians of the address of the Inspector appointed for the Union, to whom all communications respecting any information the Guardians require as to the purchase, storage, and inspection of seed should be addressed.

As soon as the necessary particulars required in the Form G. are obtained, and the form is signed by the presiding Chairman and by the Clerk of the Union, the Guardians may at once advertise for tenders for the supply of seed potatoes on Form M. annexed, and an advertisement should be inserted in the General Advertiser, as well as in such other newspapers as the Guardians may select. Tenders should be in the Form N. annexed, in which the blanks left for place and dates of delivery must be filled in before the forms are issued.

On the day fixed by the Board for opening tenders the Guardians should transmit to the Local Government Board all the tenders they have received, and should state which tenders they propose to accept, and applications for the loan in Form G., if not previously sent, should be transmitted to the Board at the same time.

In the event of the Board approving of the tender proposed to be accepted, they will, as soon as possible, advise the Guardians of the fact and will at the same time sanction the loan.

Contracts, when completed, should be notified to the Inspector at once, and the Guardians should endeavour to arrange that all supplies of seed for the Union shall be received as nearly as possible at the same time, so that the inspection may be economically carried out.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

THOS. A. MOONEY, Secretary.

No. 8.—MEMORANDUM OF INSTRUCTIONS TO SEED INSPECTORS.

Herewith are sent for the Inspectors' information copies of all rules and circulars on the subject of the Seed Supply which have been addressed to Boards of Guardians by the Local Government Board.

It is the wish of the Government that the Inspectors should clearly understand that their functions are merely those of assisting and advising the Guardians and not of directing their operations, and while on the one hand the Inspectors should see that the Guardians make all necessary arrangements and orders relating to the Seed Supply, they must be careful on the other hand not to override the Guardians' discretion or to undertake without the Guardians' approval or authority responsibilities which properly devolve on the Guardians themselves.

With this principle always clearly before them, the Inspectors will be expected to discharge the following duties :—

- I. To advise the Guardians in selecting the varieties of seed most suitable to each district, and to afford the Guardians all the information they can obtain as to the qualities of the different descriptions which are in the market.
- II. To assist the Guardians in directing and carrying out arrangements for the shipment, storage, and distribution of seed.
- III. To inspect the seed on delivery, and to report to the Guardians whether it appears to be true to kind and in accordance with tender.

The Inspectors will also be required to advise the Board whether the contracts which the Guardians propose to enter into for the purchase of seed are such as should be approved of by the Government, and they will be expected at the end of each week to report to the Board on the progress made during the week by each Union under their charge.

An Inspector on being assigned to his district should as soon as possible visit each Union under his charge, and make a note of what has been done, and what remains to be done. He should require the Clerks of Unions to keep him informed of all matters of importance in relation to the progress of the work, and he should attend the meeting of the Guardians at which tenders are opened. If he is unable to attend the meeting he should arrange to confer with the Guardians beforehand upon the subject of the varieties of seed most suited to the district, and he should require the Clerk to furnish him with particulars of the tender accepted, in order that his report to the Local Government Board may be furnished as soon as possible. If he considers that any tender accepted by a Board of Guardians should not be approved he should give his reasons clearly for coming to this conclusion.

As soon as may be after the tenders are accepted he should again visit the Union and ascertain whether proper arrangements have been made for the storage of potatoes until the time of distribution, and he should attend the Guardians' meeting and arrange for the inspection at the place of delivery agreed upon in the contract note.

The Inspectors may possibly find in some Unions that at the time of the greatest pressure the Guardians will be unable to spare the time which the duties imposed upon them demand, and that delays or irregularities are occurring in the absence of definite instructions from the Guardians to their officers; in all such cases the Inspectors should attend the Guardians' meeting and ask them to make the necessary orders forthwith.

The Inspectors will understand that within the lines laid down they have absolute discretion as to the course and details of their duties.

H

The Local Government Board will endeavour to occupy their time with correspondence as little as possible, and the Board trust that they will spare no pains to make the measure operate smoothly and successfully, and to the best advantage of those persons for whose benefit it is intended.

Dublin, 10th January, 1895.

NO. 9.—LOANS FOR THE PURCHASE OF SEED.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
22nd January, 1895.
SIR,
With reference to their circular letter of the 21st ultimo on the subject of seed potatoes, the Local Government Board for Ireland request that all applications for loans to purchase seed may be accompanied by the documents referred to in Article 4 of the Rules accompanying the circular of above date, and that a certified copy of the resolution of the Guardians applying for the loan may be attached to the Form of Estimate (G), which should be transmitted in duplicate. The Board desire to remind the Guardians that all applications for loans must be received before the 15th proximo.

NO. 10.—FINAL INSPECTION OF SEED BY COMMITTEES OF GUARDIANS.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
15th March, 1895.
SIR,
I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to acquaint you for the information of the Board of Guardians of Union that, owing to the large staff of Seed Inspectors at present engaged in Scotland, the Board regret that in a considerable number of cases they will be unable to arrange for the presence of one of their Seed Inspectors on the occasion of the second inspection of the seed on delivery in the various Unions concerned.

In these circumstances the Guardians would do well, in the opinion of the Board, to appoint a Committee, if they have not already done so, for the purpose of the final inspection of the seed, and the Board have every confidence that such Committee will carry out the work in a thoroughly efficient and satisfactory manner.

The Board hope in every case to arrange for the inspection of the seed prior to shipment or despatch, and where possible they will also send an Inspector to assist at the final inspection.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

D. J. MACSHEAHAN, Assistant Secretary.

To the Clerk of the ———† Union.

† Sent to the Clerk of each Union named in the table on pages 110-117, excepting Clonmel and Kilkenny—the Guardians of these two Unions not having decided, prior to the issue of this circular, to apply for loans for the purpose of providing seed potatoes therein. SIR, 3rd April, 1895.

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to forward to you herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of the Seed Potatoes Supply (Ireland) Act, 1895, 58 Vic., cap. 2.

NO. 12.—TABLE SHOWING RESULTS OBTAINED FROM NEW VARIETIES OF POTATOES INTRODUCED IN 1891.

Information supplied by Clerks of Unions and Boards of Guardians.

Name of Union.	Variety.	Results, as ascertained from Clerks of Unions and Boards of Guardians.	Feelings of Ratepayers.
Dromore West.	The Bruce.	Turned out a splendid cropper and disease resister, but very bad for table use.	The small farmers of this Union do not like it, and will not purchase any for seed this season.
Gunnard.	do.	A total failure.	Farmers would not plant them against any price.
Currick-on-Shannon.	do.	Turned out to be a bad potato.	Would not again be planted by farmers.
Oughterard.	do.	Up to last year the Bruce succeeded very well in this Union, in regard to quantity, but it was never much in favour for table use. Last year it suffered more from disease than the Champion.	Is not desired by the farmers this year.
Ballinrobe.	do.	Unless in exceptional cases, they turned out very badly.	Would on no account be taken again.
Castlerock.	do.	Reported a failure.
Galway.	do.	Guardians had to sell the seed at half price.
Mount Bellew.	Imperators.	Did not at all prove a success.	The potatoes when boiled were not unlike Aberdeen turnips, wet and soft. The farmers don't want them again.
Ballina.	do.	The first year being a dry season they did fairly well; but the next year they were an absolute failure.	On dry land and in a dry season they might do fairly well. In wet land and a wet season they would prove an absolute failure.
Tobercurry.	do.	Not at all a success, but the contrary.
Swinsford.	do.	Not suitable for this district.

* Sent to the Clerk of each Union named in the table on pages 110-117, and to the Unions of Abbeyleix and Boyle, the Guardians of which had resolved to apply for loans for the purpose of providing seed potatoes, but subsequently decided not to take further steps under the Act.

Name of Union.	Variety.	Results, as ascertained from Clerks of Unions and Boards of Guardians.	Feelings of Ratepayers.
Portlanna, .	Imperators, .	Did not generally turn out successful.	In the Workhouse garden Sutton's Abundance succeeded best out of twelve varieties, but the test is not considered fair.
Glenzie, .	Irish Whites,	Succeeded fairly well.	Were highly spoken of by the small farmers as productive, and a better potato for poor land than the Champion; but the latter is preferable for good land.
Stranorlar, .	do, .	Produced very satisfactory results in the mountain districts where they were distributed.
Donegal, .	do, .	The Irish Whites turned out very well.	Are being eagerly inquired for now.
Dingle, .	do, .	Turned out a productive crop during the two first seasons, viz., 1891-2, in this district, in this respect exceeding the Champion. They did not, however, prove to be a good table potato, and were chiefly valued as a late keeping sort. The crop of 1893 appears to have considerably deteriorated, and in many cases to have failed; and last year, 1894, they appear to have been equally with the Champion affected by disease.
Lismore, .	do, .	These potatoes did not give satisfaction.	Are regarded with disfavour in this district.
Oldcastle, .	Sutton's Abundance.	Remarkably good in some parts of this Union, not so good on low-lying lands.	The Guardians only purchased 66 cwt., so that the test was hardly a fair one.
Strokastown, .	do, .	Gave satisfaction only in a few cases; in most cases the crop was badly blighted.
Mitchelstown, .	Victory, .	Proved to be an exceedingly bad potato.
Kanturk, .	Generals, .	Not a success. Half the seed failed. That which grew proved a healthy and abundant crop, but quite unfit for table use, being soft and watery.
Inishowen .	Main Crop, .	A light cropper, although of excellent quality for table use. Does not suit this district, and has gone entirely out of cultivation here.

OUT-DOOR RELIEF.

I. FORM of LETTER to the BOARDS of GUARDIANS of certain UNIONS.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

SIR, _____, 1895.

The Local Government Board for Ireland have had before them the on the subject of the distress which is likely to prevail among the small landholders in certain districts of the Union; and in reference thereto, I am directed to state that if in the opinion of the Guardians the ordinary powers possessed by them are not sufficient to meet cases of emergency and hardship, if such should unfortunately arise, they may at once apply to be permitted to relax the regulations under which out-door relief can ordinarily be afforded, and to charge the expense of affording such relief in the same manner as if it had been indoor relief under the Poor Law Acts.

Any application on this subject shall be at once submitted to Government, and the Local Government Board are authorised to state that it shall receive immediate consideration.

If, however, an emergency involving the risk of life by reason of the want of food should arise in any part of the Union, the Guardians may at once afford the out-door relief, and at the same time apply for the necessary authority.

No. 2.—REPORT OF MR. R. HUNTER PRINGLE, Chief Seed Inspector.

SEED POTATOES SUPPLY ACT, 1895.

REPORT upon the WORK done by SEED INSPECTORS EMPLOYED by the LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD for IRELAND.

Custom House, Dublin,

25th April, 1895.

SIR,

I have now the honour to submit, for the information of the Local Government Board, the following Report upon the work done by the Seed Inspectors appointed under the Seed Potatoes Supply (Ireland) Act, 1895.

Nature of Instructions issued in 1891.

1. The instructions originally prepared for the guidance of Inspectors were similar to those issued in 1891, and were grouped under three headings:—

- (i.) To advise the Guardians in selecting the varieties of seed most suitable to each district, and to afford the Guardians all the information they can obtain as to the qualities of the different descriptions which are in the market.
- (ii.) To assist the Guardians in directing and carrying out arrangements for the shipment, storage, and distribution of seed.
- (iii.) To inspect the seed on delivery, and to report to the Guardians whether it appears to be true to kind, and in accordance with tender.

Alteration in Procedure for 1895.

2. The duties of Seed Inspectors, as described under headings I. and II., were in no way altered, but as regards those directly connected with the inspection of potatoes (No. III. in Memo. of Instructions), and the mode of reporting thereupon, a considerable change was made.

The Local Government Board, subsequent to the preparation and issue of their Memorandum of Instructions to Seed Inspectors referred to above, deemed it advisable to alter the nature and extend the sphere of inspections, by introducing a system of thorough inspection before shipment or despatch, and empowering Boards of Guardians to carry out, by means of Committees of Guardians appointed for the purpose, a further inspection upon delivery.

Inspections before Shipment and Despatch instituted.

3. The Board were of opinion that by arranging for inspections, and placing Inspectors in or near the districts where the potatoes were stated to have been grown, or at the places from which they would be shipped or loaded on railway waggons, the full value and utility of Government inspection, as a preventive of future disappointment and dispute, would be secured.

Arrangements in preparation for Inspections.

4. The intention of the Board to inspect before shipment or despatch was accordingly notified to the parties whose tenders were from time to time accepted by the Boards of Guardians, and approved by the Local Government Board, and the necessary dates for inspection were arranged and fixed by direct communication with the contractors. In the Letter of Notification addressed to contractors the Board expressed their willingness to carry out inspections before despatch on condition that reasonable facilities for so doing were provided, and it is right to say that, with very few exceptions, the contractors complied with those conditions, and facilitated the work of Inspectors in every way.

Issue of special instructions to Seed Inspectors.

5. Preparatory to the commencement of inspections a special memorandum of hints and instructions was issued by the Board for the guidance of their Seed Inspectors, and the lines therein laid down were followed by the Inspectors, whether in Scotland or Ireland, before shipment or on delivery.

The Report Forms issued for inspections, their nature and purposes.

6. For the information of Boards of Guardians and the Local Government Board, Seed Inspectors were supplied with special Report Forms, on which were recorded "details of inspections" and "results of inspections." Copies of these were preserved for future reference, the originals being posted each night to the Local Government Board.

The Forms for Inspectors' reports were of two kinds :—

- 1st. The blue Form III., for inspections before despatch.
- 2nd. The pink Form IV., for inspections on delivery.

The Report Forms, besides giving information as to the quality and condition of each parcel of seed, mentioned the probable date of shipment or despatch. In the Forms used for "details of inspection" the Inspectors not only gave the name of the district from which the seed was obtained, but also described the contents of each bag examined, and stated the weight of potatoes therein contained. By this means underweight was on several occasions detected and the mistake rectified before despatch.

The report system carried out in 1895 served other useful purposes. The quantities inspected for each Union found satisfactory and immediately placed on ship or rail were noted down at the time of inspection, and it became difficult, if not impossible, for contractors to evade inspection or send forward inferior stuff without the knowledge of the Inspectors. In the case of a few small parcels accidentally shipped without inspection, the mistake was promptly discovered by the Inspectors and notified to the Guardians through the Local Government Board. The potatoes for five Unions were shipped from Scotland in the face of strong protests by three Seed Inspectors who were dissatisfied with the quality of the seed, but the Guardians were, through the Inspectors' reports, apprised of the action of the shippers before the arrival of the seed, and in every instance the potatoes were handpicked and rendered satisfactory before distribution, at the contractor's expense.

Proportions of Seed purchased from Scotland, England, and North of Ireland.

7. Of the total quantity of seed purchased under the provisions of the Seed Supply Act, 1895, about two-thirds came from Scotland and England and one-third from the North of Ireland. Only three Unions purchased English seed, the quantity being 225 tons.

How the work of Inspectors was arranged.

8. The work of Inspectors was arranged in the following manner:—

Two Inspectors were sent to the North of Ireland, and to each was given a list of quantities to be supplied to various Unions, with the names of the contractors from whom the seed was purchased. The Inspectors, by pre-arrangement and co-operation with the contractors, succeeded in thoroughly examining all lots without causing any delay either in dressing or despatch. The potatoes were got ready for inspection at various local centres, and the Inspectors moved from place to place as instructed by contractors. The number of Inspectors employed in Scotland varied according to the need for their presence. The departure of frost in the milder districts of Ireland three weeks before the thaw had thoroughly set in in Scotland gave rise to great pressure being brought to bear upon contractors by Boards of Guardians anxious to get and distribute their potatoes early in the season. Before potatoes could be handled or moved in Scotland this pressure had become general, and when at length the frost fairly gave way in Scotland, the crush of seed arriving and awaiting inspection in Glasgow and elsewhere rendered an increase in the staff of Inspectors necessary for the time being. The number of Inspectors was accordingly gradually increased from 5 to 9, and subsequently reduced as the pressure moderated and circumstances permitted.

Explanation of the Movements and Work of Seed Inspectors in Scotland.

9. In order to explain the movements of Seed Inspectors in Scotland, and the system by which all parties were accommodated and delay avoided, it is necessary to observe that the contractors belonged to various classes, and obtained their supplies in different ways.

Class A.—Potato factors and merchants who are regularly engaged in the Scotch potato trade, and who buy direct from the growers. In such cases the potatoes were riddled, dressed, and prepared for despatch on farms generally situated within easy reach of one another. The examination of seed supplied by contractors of this class was conducted by Seed Inspectors who, under the guidance and in the company of the contractors, visited each farm and viewed the potatoes before they left the premises. About 1,400 tons were so inspected, and it is important to observe that of this quantity only ten tons were objected to on the grounds of quality in Ireland. Under this system the average rate of inspection closely corresponded with the quantity daily got ready, and no loss of time occurred on either side. By these contractors a list of the farms on which each lot was grown was supplied to the Inspectors.

Class B.—Irish contractors who purchased direct from the growers. In 1895 there was but one contractor of this class. His lots were inspected in the manner already described, and met with similar approval on arrival. In this case a list of the farms from which the seed was purchased was supplied by the Local Government Board to the Guardians.

Class C 1.—Scotch contractors who either purchased from potato merchants or middlemen, or who employed buyers on commission to collect the required quantities, carry out the suggestions of Inspectors, and attend to the shipments.

Class C 2.—Irish contractors who employed Scotch potato merchants or seedsmen to provide them with the required quantities, these merchants or seedsmen having already employed middlemen to buy for them.

The larger proportion of the potatoes ordered from Scotland were purchased from parties who worked entirely on these principles, and it is only necessary to state that on several occasions three and four middlemen were discovered to have intervened between contractor and grower to show that this system of dealing is open to very grave objections. None of the potatoes so procured were inspected on farms, the reason being that the contractors could not inform the Inspectors where the seed was grown or could be found. The usual understanding between the contractors and those supplying the seed was that only those would be accepted which passed Government inspection, and this placed your Seed Inspectors in the awkward position of having to decide not only between Boards of Guardians and contractors, but also between contractors and those from whom they had purchased.

So long as contractors were represented at time and place of inspection no difficulties arose, but when they were not represented (and this frequently happened) the Inspectors were brought into direct contact with parties in no way responsible to Boards of Guardians, and whose names did not appear before the Local Government Board.

In justice to those merchants who admitted having sold to contractors subject to the approval of Government Inspectors, it must be said that all dealings with them were satisfactory and pleasant, but in the case of several Unions the shipper denied any such obligation, and refused to give ear to our recommendations. All the seed supplied by contractors of the two Classes C. was inspected at ports of shipment. Sometimes the potatoes were dressed before being placed on rail and forwarded in bags; more frequently it was merely riddled at the pit side and sent forward loose in waggons to be dressed at the place of inspection.

The lots which arrived in Glasgow loose in waggons were re-riddled and dressed under the personal superintendence of your Seed Inspectors, and in this way about 2,000 tons were prepared for shipment. When forwarded in bags, specimen bags were taken from each waggon or heap at the rate of one in twenty, or more if thought necessary, turned out and examined at a convenient place in the goods sheds, and subsequently returned to their own waggons or heaps.

The constant arrival of potatoes at Queen-street Station, Glasgow, kept two Inspectors in steady and continuous work for nearly three weeks, but occasions arose when it was necessary to add to their number. The other Inspectors stationed in Glasgow moved about from place to place under the direction of your Chief Seed Inspector, who being in constant touch and communication with the shippers and contractors, was advised of all arrivals.

When contractors had purchased their supplies in outlying districts and decided to ship from the nearest seaports, Inspectors were detached from the ordinary staff in Glasgow and sent to the places fixed for inspection by contractors, their work in Glasgow being taken in hand by your Chief Inspector pending their return. In this way consignments were examined in the Counties of Inverness, Ross, Durham, Cumberland, and Lancashire, without causing delay elsewhere.

The period occupied by the inspections in Scotland extended from March 3rd to March 28th, but one lot of 250 tons was inspected in February, and one Inspector was left in Glasgow until April 19th for supplemental supplies ordered during April.

REMARKS UPON THE GENERAL RESULTS OF INSPECTION BEFORE DESPATCH OF SHIPMENT.

Satisfactory Results obtained from Inspections before Shipment or Despatch.

10. The best possible proof of the advantages attending careful and thorough inspection before despatch or shipment is afforded by the smaller number of disputes which arose between Guardians and contractors on arrival of seed in 1895 as contrasted with 1891, and by the general satisfaction which the potatoes so inspected are reported to have given to the Guardians and occupiers of land in Ireland.

The few objections that did take place on arrival were confined to lots that had been forwarded loose in waggons, in which case the effects of frost could not always be detected at time of inspection, or which had been mismanaged or improperly treated after inspection and before shipment, or which were dressed and inspected under such unfavourable circumstances as the following :—

Inspections conducted under Difficulties.

11. One part of the stores at Queen-street Station, Glasgow, was rendered so dark by a depending loft or false roof that when unhappily waggons were placed there by the Railway Company satisfactory detection or removal of unsound tubers during dressing became extremely difficult, and many must have escaped observation which under more favourable conditions would readily have been seen. Again, owing to the short duration of daylight and the exertions of Contractors to forward their consignments, dressing was frequently persevered with when the light was insufficient to enable the labourers to properly distinguish between good and bad.

Occasional Negligence on the part of Contractors.

12. After inspection small lots of potatoes sometimes went astray or got covered up in the sheds of the Shipping Companies, to remain there until discovered. In the case of one consignment a parcel of 30 tons of excellent seed was permitted to lie in the corner of a shed for nearly three weeks before shipment, and was afterwards discovered to have considerably deteriorated in condition and appearance.

The Movement of Potatoes under the Control of Seed Inspectors in 1895.

13. It is interesting to observe that although in 1891 some lots of seed arrived in a heated condition, and railway traffic both in Scotland and Ireland was severely congested for the time being, in 1895 no seed is reported to have heated, and the ordinary arrangements of railway companies were in no way disturbed. It is true that the quantity dealt with in 1895 was small when contrasted with that of 1891, but it is on the other hand to be observed that this year the movement of potatoes in Scotland was confined to four weeks, whereas in 1891 it extended over a period of three months.

Under the system pursued this year, contractors abstained from bringing forward potatoes more rapidly than your Inspectors could examine them, and shipments were therefore entirely regulated and controlled by the quantities examined and passed by Inspectors. No delays took place either at railway stations or on board ship, and injuries from such causes appear to have been conspicuously absent.

Rejections on account of Frosted Tubers.

14. The most frequent cause for rejection on arrival in Ireland was the presence of tubers which had been frost-bitten in the pits and become soft in transit. Although the greatest care was exercised by your Inspectors to prevent frosted potatoes being sent forward, it was impossible for them in every instance to detect injury of this nature, for frost only reveals its presence by a subsequent softening of the tubers, and slightly affected potatoes occasionally remain sound and firm till confined for several days in bags. Instances occurred this year where potatoes were rejected by your Inspectors three times over because of frost, and only pronounced satisfactory after they had been three times carefully hand-picked. The damage inflicted by frost on potato pits in Scotland was this year so serious and widespread, that had it not been for the services rendered by your Inspectors, and the diligence with which they carried out the instructions of the Board, a large proportion of the seed sent from Scotland must of necessity have reached Ireland in a shocking state.

Remarks upon the apparent Degeneracy of the Champion.

15. Although to outward appearance some of the lots of Champions presented for inspection in Scotland retained most of the best characteristics of the Champion of former years and showed few signs of degradation, the vast majority revealed unmistakable symptoms of constitutional degeneracy and deterioration. Even in the case of those lots which were observed to be comparatively free from degenerate growths, the fact, as stated by contractors and merchants, was due, not to the still enduring powers or intrinsic merits of the variety, but to the unusual precautions taken to remove, prior to inspection, all tubers indicating degeneracy. On all sides it is admitted that the Champion has lost its original character and merit, and is rapidly becoming an inferior and outgrown variety. For this your Inspectors had been well prepared, and the reports forwarded by them from day to day show how frequently parcels were pronounced "unsatisfactory in their present condition, and put aside to be hand-picked and freed from bastards and degenerated tubers."

Degeneracy in the Champion revealed itself in several forms.

1. Potatoes which should be round in shape, and furnished with deep eyes regularly distributed all over the surface, had assumed an elongated form, tapering towards a point, and having their eyes clustered near the apex. The produce of such potatoes, when used as seed, is only fit for pig feeding, and does not arrive at maturity. Although specimens of this "hastard" growth were more or less common to all parcels subjected to inspection, it was observed that those grown on the best class of soil or under the most liberal treatment had suffered to the greatest degree. The stronger the seed and the larger in the run, the greater the proportion of perverted growths. It would appear that anything calculated to provoke artificial luxuriance, precocity, or productiveness now tends to accelerate the degradation of the Champion.

2. When grown on land heavily dressed with town or "street" manure, the Champion now falls a victim to a skin disease commonly known as "corky or horny end." Potatoes so affected are unsightly, and altogether unsuitable for seed or table purposes. Many of the consignments which arrived in Glasgow for inspection were set aside pending re-picking and re-assortment for this fault, and three parcels were so seriously affected that after being hand-picked and rejected three times they were ultimately withdrawn as being beyond remedy.

3. Degeneracy also exhibited itself in the large proportion of monstrosities and unnaturally shaped tubers present in the bags. Where such tubers grow, the efforts of nature are expended in producing fruit of no practical value either for food or seed purposes, and the other potatoes discovered at the same root are diminutive in size, stunted in development, and useless either for table or market.

The Champion not much Injured by Disease in 1894.

16. The Champion crop of 1894, judging from the inspections conducted in Scotland, does not appear to have been severely affected by blight, and although several lots were objected to partly on account of the presence of diseased tubers, still the objection was generally coupled with others of a different nature. But taking everything into account, and making due allowance for the rather unfavourable weather of 1894, irresistible testimony to the degeneracy of the Champion in Scotland was borne by the appearance and quality of the potatoes examined by the Seed Inspectors employed under the Seed Supply Act, 1895.

Superior Class of Seed obtained from the North of Ireland.

17. The Champions obtained from and inspected before despatch in the North of Ireland were, so far as outward appearance goes, superior in all respects to those of Scotch production. Not only were they freer from degenerate shapes or perverted growth, but they were more true to kind, more robust in skin and constitution, and more comely to the eye.

Excellent Quality of Varieties other than the Champion.

18. As regards varieties other than Champions inspected this year for Irish Unions, the quality of the seed, whether Main Crops, Sutton's Abundance, Bruce, Beauty of Bute, or Irish Whites, left nothing to be desired. In a very few cases frost was detected, but in other respects the standard of excellence was high, and disease was nowhere complained of.

The Mistake made by Contractors in having no Distinguishing Brands on different Lots of Seed.

19. Several of the contractors, portions of whose consignments were rejected on arrival in Ireland, acted against their own interests by filling potatoes from different farms and of varying quality into bags indistinguishable the one from the other. It accordingly followed that when during transit frost came out in one parcel and was discovered on arrival, it was impossible to set apart that parcel and have it put right without involving others. If contractors had only allowed themselves to be guided in this matter by the advice of your Inspectors, each parcel would have arrived with its own distinctive brand, and faulty lots could have been re-dressed without interfering with those to which no objections were found. Had distinguishing brands been everywhere used, the quantity refused in Ireland would not have been nearly so great as it actually was.

Feelings and Opinions of Contractors with respect to the system of Government Inspection before Shipment.

20. It remains to be said that the presence and labours of your Seed Inspectors at places of shipment or despatch, although at first it may have caused some little disquietude among contractors, ultimately met with their entire approval, and it was both pleasant and satisfactory to hear from them that by carrying out this new system of inspection in a thorough and careful manner, your Board had not only rendered subsequent rejections rare events and of small compass, but largely contributed to the complimentary terms in which their consignments were described by the recipients.

I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

R. HUNTER PRINGLE,
Chief Seed Inspector.

INVALID FOUNDLINGS.

No. 4.—INSPECTOR'S REPORT ON INVALID FOUNDLINGS MAINTAINED OUT OF THE FOUNDLING HOSPITAL GRANT.

GENTLEMEN,

7, Spencer-road, Kingstown,
29th August, 1894.

I have the honour to report that in the latter end of last month and during the present month I have visited all the invalided foundlings who are still maintained out of the Foundling Hospital Grant. Their number is the same as when I reported last year—namely, sixteen; and the fact that no one of these old and feeble invalids has since died is to some extent a proof that they have been well treated during the past twelve months. Two women (Anne Lawford, Wicklow, and Bridget Johnston, Carlow) are at present in hospital, but in neither case is there reason to fear a fatal result.

I beg leave to refer to the remarks which I made in my last report all of which are still applicable. I would desire only to add that the amount (£20) allowed for extra clothing and extra nourishment has become altogether inadequate, and when submitting my next estimate I shall propose that it be increased by £10. It may seem at first sight inconsistent to increase a grant which was found sufficient when the foundlings were more numerous; but it must be borne in mind that the older age and increased infirmity of the surviving invalids make their proper treatment more troublesome and more expensive. I have been applied to in the majority of cases for an increased allowance, and in no instance did I consider the demand unreasonable.

I think it right to mention that the rents of the Foundling Hospital Estate, which average about £75 a year, are paid up after a few applications, and are duly lodged to the supply account of H.M. Paymaster-General.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

D. J. MACSHEAHAN.

To the Local Government Board for Ireland.

EXTRACT from the former REPORT, dated the 14th of July, 1893, referred to in the foregoing.

Since the date of my last report five invalids have died, and in each case death meant a release from suffering to poor old people broken down by protracted illness and old age. Of the sixteen foundlings—three men and thirteen women—now surviving, I am glad to say that none are actually suffering from any serious illness; and with the exception of a deaf mute (John Kyle),—a woman (Catherine Kenlon) who has been quite blind,—another (Anne Marshall) who is almost blind, and a woman (Jane Ambrose), enfeebled by old age—the poor old people are in fairly good health, and all of them may be said to be comfortably circumstanced. The present ages of the foundlings range from over sixty to about eighty years, and they are all now maintained at a uniform allowance—considered to be the maximum—of £8 a year with £2 added for clothing. I am enabled to make some extra allowance out of a grant of £20 voted for that purpose, and for paying funeral and other expenses. The three men are able to do some work on the farms where their nurses live, and the majority of the thirteen women may give some small help in household work, but I do not think that the total allowance is sufficient in any case to be regarded as an inducement to any person to undertake to lodge and maintain the foundling. The term “nurse” I should mention means, with respect to the foundlings now alive, a man or woman much younger than the person at nurse; and in two instances (Mary Saul and Anne Lawford) there are no nurses, the foundlings living independently, but under the constant supervision of the clergyman of the parish, as they are in the immediate neighbourhood of the rectory.

No. 5—DISSOLUTION of the BOARD of GUARDIANS of KILLARNEY UNION.

LETTER to GUARDIANS.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
12th June, 1894.

SIR,
The Local Government Board for Ireland have had before them the Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of the Killarney Union on the 30th ultimo and the 6th instant, from which it appears that the Guardians have issued cheques for £2,134 to contractors and others, which have not been honoured owing to the Union being without funds.

The absence of the necessary funds to meet the liabilities is caused altogether by the failure of the Guardians to take effective steps to secure a punctual collection of the rates, and in consequence of this default on the part of the Guardians and their officers, and of the practice which has prevailed for some months past of issuing cheques to creditors which cannot be met, the Union appears now to be involved in legal proceedings.

The Board also regret to observe that notwithstanding the heavy liabilities of the Union, and the large amount of uncollected rates, the Guardians have directed their Solicitor to suspend the proceedings which they had ordered to be taken against the Collectors and their sureties for the recovery of the outstanding rates.

The Board have received a Memorial from a number of ratepayers in Killarney, in which it is stated that the injudicious management of the Union must culminate in disaster unless promptly checked, but as the many previous efforts of the Local Government Board to put a stop to the mismanagement of the Union by suggestions or remonstrances have proved unavailing, it is evident that in the crisis which has now arisen some stringent measures are necessary if the Union is to be extricated from its embarrassed condition.

The Board have, therefore, carefully considered the present financial position of the Union, and, on reviewing the administration of the Guardians during the past year, they have come to the conclusion that, in the interest of the poor and the ratepayers, it has now become necessary to take the management of the Union out of the hands of the Board of Guardians, and to appoint paid officers to administer the Union affairs.

An order dissolving the Board of Guardians is accordingly forwarded herewith.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

D. J. MACSHEAHAN, Assistant Secretary

The Clerk,
Killarney Union.

ENCLOSURE to the FOREGOING.

To the GUARDIANS of the POOR of the KILLARNEY UNION; to the CLERK of the said UNION; and to all other persons whom it may concern:

WHEREAS, through the default of the Board of Guardians of the Killarney Union, the duties of the Board of Guardians of the said Union have not been duly and effectually discharged according to the intention of the Acts in force for the Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland:

Now, THEREFORE, WE, the Local Government Board for Ireland, do hereby, in exercise of the powers by the said Acts vested in Us in this behalf, declare the said Board of Guardians to be dissolved, and the said Board is hereby dissolved accordingly.

Sealed with our Seal, this Twelfth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety-four.

LABOURERS' COTTAGES GRANT DEPOSIT ACCOUNT.

NO. 6.—LETTER from the LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD to the UNDER SECRETARY of the LORD LIEUTENANT.

Local Government Board,
Dublin, 22nd March, 1894.

SIR,

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to advert to the letter from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 21st of March, 1891 (forwarded to the Board with File No. 8,745 from your department), approving of a Regulation for limiting the time within which Boards of Guardians in Ireland might claim payments from the "Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account," which had been prepared in accordance with a suggestion of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, as communicated to the Board in Sir William Kaye's letter of the 11th of March, 1890.

The Regulation in question is as follows:—

"All sums remaining in the Deposit Account after the expiration of three years from the termination of the financial year in respect of which the grant was made, and which shall not have become payable to Boards of Guardians within that time, in pursuance of the foregoing Regulations, shall be disposed of as may hereafter be determined."

The grant of £40,000 for Labourers' cottages was provided for in the estimate for the year ended 31st of March, 1891, and the period of three years referred to in the Regulation will have expired on the 1st proximo.

The portion of the grant transferred to the "Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account" in the month of March, 1891, amounted to £14,906 6s. 5d., and of this sum only £766 0s. 6d. has up to this date been paid to the Commissioners of Public Works, in pursuance of Clause 5 of the Regulation approved by the Treasury for the distribution of the grant.

The Board will feel greatly obliged if His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant will kindly obtain, by the 1st April, for their guidance, the directions of their Lordships on the subject.

As the grant was voted in relief of the liabilities incurred or to be incurred by Boards of Guardians in carrying out the Labourers Acts, and, as there is a probability of some Boards of Guardians who have not hitherto availed themselves of the Acts putting the Acts into force within a short time in their Unions, the Board would suggest for the consideration of their Lordships, whether it might not be desirable and expedient to reserve the balance of the deposit account for some time longer, so as to afford further opportunity to the Guardians in these cases of obtaining the benefit of the grant.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

D. J. MACSHEAHAN,
Assistant Secretary.

The Under-Secretary,
Dublin Castle.

No. 7.—LETTER FROM THE UNDER SECRETARY OF THE LORD
LIEUTENANT TO THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD.Chief Secretary's Office,
Dublin Castle,

27th March, 1894.

Sir,

I am directed by the Lords Justices to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. MacSheshan's letter of the 22nd instant, No. 13,763, on the subject of the Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account, and to state that a copy thereof has been forwarded to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for their Lordships' decision.

Their Excellencies desire me to request that you will move the Local Government Board to be good enough to explain their grounds for anticipating that Boards of Guardians who have taken no action in the past three years for securing relief from liabilities in carrying out the Labourers Acts will now take action within a short time.

I am to add that the Board have allowed the time to run so close that it is to be feared that the Treasury reply cannot be received by the end of the current financial year.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

The Secretary,
Local Government Board.

D. HARREL.

No. 8.—LETTER FROM THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD TO THE
UNDER SECRETARY OF THE LORD LIEUTENANT.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

29th March, 1894.

Sir,

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th instant, referring to the Board's communication of the 22nd instant on the subject of the Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account; and with reference to the request of the Lords Justices to be informed of the Board's reason for anticipating that some Boards of Guardians who have not hitherto availed themselves of the benefit of the grant are likely to do so shortly, I am to state that the Guardians of four Unions, viz., Ballymoney, Roscrea, Strokestown, and Portlanna, have recently obtained Provisional Orders, and would shortly be entitled to receive their share of the grant in question.

Moreover, for some time past there has been a movement on the part of labourers in the province of Ulster to secure that the Acts shall be put in force in Unions situate in that province. The Board recently, in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1891, held an inquiry through one of their Inspectors regarding the refusal of the Guardians of Strahane Union to put the Acts in force, and the Inspector has reported in favour of a scheme being made for the erection of a number of houses. Judging from recent correspondence, it will, no doubt, shortly become necessary for the Board to take similar action under the Act mentioned in regard to several Unions, and this may lead to voluntary action on the part of the Boards of Guardians in other cases.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

D. J. MACSHEAHAN, Assistant Secretary.

The Under Secretary,
Dublin Castle.

No. 9.—LETTER from the ASSISTANT UNDER SECRETARY of the LORD LIEUTENANT to the LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD.

Chief Secretary's Office,
Dublin Castle,
10th April, 1894.

SIR,

I am directed by the Lord Lieutenant to state that Mr. Mac Sheahan's letters of the 22nd and 29th ultimo, on the subject of the Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account, have been brought under the consideration of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and I am to transmit for the information of the Local Government Board a copy of their Lordships' reply.

I am to request that the suggestion made in the final paragraph of their Lordships' letter may be complied with.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

W. S. B. KAYE.

The Secretary,
Local Government Board.

ENCLOSURE TO THE FOREGOING.

Treasury Chambers,
6th April, 1894.

SIR,—I have laid before the Lords Commissioners of H. M. Treasury Sir D. Harrel's letters of the 27th and 30th ult. (3,717, 3,930), enclosing copies of letters from the Local Government Board (Ireland), who suggest an extension of the three years limited by the regulation approved in Treasury Letter (4,358, '91) of the 21st March, 1891, as the period within which Boards of Guardians in Ireland may claim payments from the "Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account," that period having expired on the 31st ult.

I am to request you to inform His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant that, having regard to what is stated in the letter from the Local Government Board of the 29th ult., their Lordships are of opinion that another period of twelve months may be allowed in order to enable those Boards of Guardians who have not yet done so to qualify themselves for the receipt of this relief, and that the balance of the Deposit Account may, accordingly, be reserved until the 31st March, 1895, after which date the surplus will be disposed of in such manner as this Board, in concert with the Irish Government, may determine.

Their Lordships would, moreover, suggest that the Local Government Board should warn the outstanding Boards of Guardians that, unless they take immediate steps to adopt the Labourers Acts in their Unions, they will be liable to lose the benefit of the Grant.

I am, &c.,
R. E. WELBY.

The Chief Secretary,
Dublin Castle.

No. 10.—LETTER to the BOARDS of GUARDIANS of CERTAIN
UNIONS.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

SIR,

19th April, 1894.

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to draw the attention of the Board of Guardians of the Union to the correspondence printed at pages 118, &c., of the Board's Nineteenth Annual Report (Report for 1890-91), relating to the Parliamentary Grant of £40,000 in aid of the liabilities of Boards of Guardians in Ireland under the Labourers (Ireland) Acts. It will be seen from the correspondence in question that the shares of the Grant to which Boards of Guardians who had not put the Labourers Acts into operation might become entitled were carried to a deposit account in the hands of the Paymaster-General, to be operated on as occasion might arise, subject to certain regulations. These regulations are printed at pages 121-2 of the Report, and the Board wish to direct the Guardians' special attention to Clause 5, which sets forth the condition on which a proportion of the Grant might become payable on the Guardians' behalf. The proportion which might thus become payable on behalf of the Guardians of the Union would be £ . . .

Clause 7 of the Regulations provided that all sums remaining in the Deposit Account after the expiration of three years from the termination of the financial year in respect of which the Grant was made and which would not have become payable to Boards of Guardians within that time, in pursuance of the Regulations, should be disposed of as might be determined. The period of three years mentioned expired on the 31st ultimo, but the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have decided that another period of twelve months from the 31st ultimo shall be allowed to enable those Boards of Guardians who have not already done so to participate in the Grant to the extent of the shares that would accrue to them. The balance of the Deposit Account will accordingly be reserved until the 31st of March, 1895, and the Board have now to point out to the Guardians that unless they take immediate steps to put the Labourers Acts into force in their Union they will be liable to lose the benefit of the Grant.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

D. J. MACSHEAHAN, Assistant Secretary.

NO. 11.—LETTER from the LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD to the UNDER SECRETARY of the LORD LIEUTENANT.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

15th February, 1895.

SIR,

Referring to Sir William Kaye's letter of the 10th of April, 1894, on the subject of the "Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account," I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to state that the period mentioned in the communication from the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, which accompanied that letter, as the time within which Boards of Guardians might claim their respective shares of the Grant will expire on the 31st proximo.

Since the 31st March last the shares of only two Unions (Strabane and Stranorlar) have been actually paid out of the account mentioned, but it is likely that several other Unions would become entitled to their shares during the present year, if such shares remained available for that time. The Boards of Guardians of Magherafelt, Castleblayney, and Limavady Unions have recently made Improvement Schemes themselves, and the question of putting in force, in the Unions of Cootehill, Londonderry, Downpatrick, Rathdown, Lisnaskes, and Omagh, the compulsory powers conferred by the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1891, by the appointment of an Inspector of the Local Government Board to carry out Schemes in these Unions, is at present engaging the Board's attention.

The Board understand, moreover, that it is intended to introduce a Bill during the present session of Parliament simplifying the procedure necessary under the present Labourers Acts, and this may have the effect of encouraging Boards of Guardians, who have not done so hitherto, to put the Acts in force in their Unions.

In these circumstances it might be well to extend the time within which Boards of Guardians having shares in the account in question may become entitled to receive them, and the Board will be obliged by being informed of their Lordships' wishes in the matter.

In accordance with the suggestion contained in their Lordships' letter of the 6th of April last, above referred to, the Board, on receipt of that letter, informed the several Boards of Guardians concerned that unless they took immediate steps to put the Labourers Acts into force in their Unions they would be liable to lose the benefit of the Grant.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

THOS. A. MOONEY.

Secretary.

Chief Secretary's Office, Dublin Castle,

2nd March, 1895.

SIR,—With reference to your letter of the 15th ultimo, No. 15,237, I am directed by the Lord Lieutenant to transmit to you, for the information of the Local Government Board, the enclosed copy of a letter from the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, authorising the extension until the 31st March, 1896, of the period within which Boards of Guardians in Ireland may claim payments from the Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

D. HARREL.

The Secretary, Local Government Board,

ENCLOSURE TO THE FOREGOING.

Treasury Chambers,

27th February, 1895.

SIR, I have laid before the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury Sir D. Harrel's letter (2,672) of the 18th instant, with the enclosed copy of a letter from the Local Government Board; and in reply I am to acquaint you, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that their Lordships authorise the extension, until the 31st March, 1896, of the period within which Boards of Guardians in Ireland may claim payment from the Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account.

NO. 13.—LETTER to the BOARDS of GUARDIANS of CERTAIN
UNIONS.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
13th March, 1895.

SIR,
With reference to their letter of the 19th of April last,* I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to acquaint you, for the information of the Board of Guardians of ——— Union, that the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have authorised the extension, until the 31st of March, 1896, of the period within which Boards of Guardians may claim payments from the Labourers' Cottages Grant Deposit Account.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

D. J. MACSHEAHAN, Assistant Secretary.

To the Clerk,
† ——— Union.

NO. 14.—LETTER from the LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD to the
UNDER SECRETARY of the LORD LIEUTENANT.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
8th June, 1894.

SIR,
I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to draw the attention of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant to the following facts.

It is provided by Section 4 of the Labourers (Ireland) Acts, 1891, that where a Sanitary Authority has failed to pass any resolution in relation to a representation under the Labourers (Ireland) Acts, or has passed a resolution not to proceed with an Improvement Scheme, the Local Government Board may, if required by the persons who signed the representation, direct a local inquiry to be held with respect to the correctness thereof. Section 8 of the same Act provides that where an Inspector of the Board has held such an inquiry, and it appears upon his report that the representation is correct, if the Sanitary Authority shall not take sufficient steps for carrying an Improvement Scheme into execution, the Inspector shall make complaint to the Local Government Board, and the Board may make an Order giving the Inspector authority to exercise all the powers and to perform all the duties of the Sanitary Authority under the Acts.

In pursuance of these provisions, the Board have, acting under the approval of the Chief Secretary for Ireland, made an Order,† a copy of which is enclosed, appointing their Inspector, Mr. R. Kelly, to carry out the Acts in the case of the Strabane Union.

The question now arises as to the source from which the Inspector is to obtain the requisite funds to enable him to defray the preliminary expenses (pending the granting of a loan) for the purposes of the Improvement Scheme to be made by him, and as other similar cases are likely to arise within a short time, some of the steps in relation to which have already been taken, it is imperatively necessary that a definite understanding on this point should at once be arrived at.

The Board do not think they have any power to advance such expenses out of the vote for their Department, in anticipation of a loan being obtained, and the Act contains no provision on the subject.

* See page 122.

† Addressed to the Clerk of each Union named on page 123, excepting Strabane, Stranclar, and Cootchill.

‡ See page 141.

In these circumstances the Board would suggest that the proportion of the Labourers' Cottages Grant of £40,000 (voted in the year 1890), standing to the credit of these Unions in the "Deposit Account" in the books of the Paymaster-General, Dublin, should be appropriated for the payment of the expenses referred to in the case of the Strabane Union, and in other similar cases.

The Regulations approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for dealing with the "Deposit Account" above alluded to (Rule 5), require that a Board of Guardians shall have received an instalment of a loan from the Commissioners of Public Works for the purpose of carrying out the Acts before the share standing to their credit in the Account, or any portion thereof, would become payable, and then the amount would be paid to the Commissioners of Public Works and not to them (see Sir William Kaye's letters to the Board of the 7th November, 1890, and 22nd November, 1890, and correspondence connected therewith). It would be necessary, therefore, to obtain the sanction of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to a modification of the Regulations in this particular to enable sums in the "Deposit Account" to be appropriated in the manner suggested.

The object of the Regulation referred to above was to secure that the portion of the Grant for each Union would be applied by the Guardians to the purpose for which it was intended, but there can be no doubt on this point where an Inspector is appointed to carry out the Acts, and in such cases the money might, therefore, be made immediately available.

The Board trust His Excellency may be pleased to submit this suggestion to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for consideration, and they will feel obliged by receiving instructions on the subject for their guidance, as the Inspector authorised to carry out the Acts in the case of the Strabane Union cannot incur any expense for the purpose until the question is decided.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

THOS. A. MOONEY, Secretary.

The Under Secretary,
Dublin Castle.

SIR,

I am directed by the Lords Justices to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th instant, No. 52 M, and to request that you will move the Local Government Board to be good enough to submit a draft of a clause to be added to the Regulations already approved of by the Treasury for dealing with the Deposit Account of the Parliamentary Grant in aid of the liabilities incurred or to be incurred by Boards of Guardians in Ireland under the Labourers (Ireland) Acts, 1883 and 1885, which, in the opinion of the Board, would meet the case of the Strabane Union and other similar cases.

No. 16.—LETTER from the LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD to the

Local Government Board, Dublin,

SIR,

16th June, 1894.

In compliance with the request contained in Sir W. Kaye's letter of the 11th instant (No. 7,118), I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to forward herewith, to be laid before Their Excellencies the Lords Justices, a proposed draft of a clause to be added to the Regulations already approved of by the Treasury for dealing with the Deposit Account of the Parliamentary Grant in aid of the liabilities incurred or to be incurred by Boards of Guardians in Ireland under the Labourers (Ireland) Acts.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

D. J. MACSHEAHAN, Assistant Secretary.

The Under Secretary,

ENCLOSURE TO THE FOREGOING.

PARLIAMENTARY GRANT in aid of the LIABILITIES incurred or to be incurred by BOARDS of GUARDIANS in IRELAND under the Labourers (Ireland) Acts.

In addition to the Regulations* already made for dealing with "the Labourers Cottages Grant Deposit Account" in the books of the Paymaster-General, Dublin, there shall be the following:—

"When an Order has been made by the Local Government Board for Ireland in pursuance of Section 8 of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1891, giving one of their Inspectors authority to exercise the powers, and to perform the duties of a Sanitary Authority as provided for in the Labourers (Ireland) Acts, the Accounting Officer of the said Local Government Board may, with the authority of that Board, under their official seal, notwithstanding the provisions contained in rules 4 and 5 of the Regulations already made as above referred to, make an Order on the Paymaster-General for payment to the Treasurer of the Sanitary Authority of the amount standing to the credit of such Sanitary Authority in the Labourers Cottages Grant Deposit Account, such amount to be lodged to the credit of a separate account entitled "The Labourers Acts Account." The Inspector may draw upon such account for all sums required by him in the discharge of the duties imposed upon him by the Order of the Local Government Board in relation to the carrying out of the Labourers Acts in the Union, and the Treasurer shall pay from such account all sums for which he shall receive cheques signed by the said Inspector, and countersigned by the Clerk of the Union, until the entire of the amount lodged in the said Labourers Acts Account shall have been paid by the said Treasurer.

"Any sum not required by the Inspector for the purpose above mentioned shall be paid by the Treasurer to the Paymaster-General, Dublin Castle, upon a cheque signed by the Inspector, and countersigned by the Clerk of the Union, to be dealt with in the manner provided in the rules numbered 4, 5, and 7 contained in the Regulations already referred to."

NO. 17.—LETTER FROM THE ASSISTANT UNDER SECRETARY OF THE LORD LIEUTENANT TO THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD.

Chief Secretary's Office, Dublin Castle,

SIR,

20th July, 1894.

With reference to previous correspondence on the subject of an additional Regulation to those already approved for the distribution of the grant in aid of Guardians' liabilities under the Labourers Acts, I am directed by the Lords Justices to forward, for the information of the Local Government Board, copy of a letter from Their Lordships of the Treasury, dated 17th instant, approving of the draft clause submitted by you.

I am to add that, in accordance with the suggestion made by Their Lordships in the final paragraph, the arrangement will be communicated to the Board of Works.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

W. S. B. KAYE.

The Secretary,
Local Government Board.

ENCLOSURE TO THE FOREGOING.

Treasury Chambers,
17th July, 1894.

SIR,—I have laid before the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury Sir William Kaye's letter of the 22nd ultimo, submitting a copy of a letter from the Local Government Board, Ireland, together with a draft of a new regulation proposed to be added to those already approved for the distribution of the grant in aid of Guardians' liabilities under the Labourers Acts—the object being to meet, by an immediate payment from the Deposit Account opened under these regulations, the cases of Boards of Guardians who make default in carrying out an improvement scheme, and whose duties in this respect are, under Section 8 of the Act of 1891, imposed upon a Local Government Board Inspector.

In reply, I am to request you to inform His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant that their Lordships approve of the Draft Regulation.

The intention of the original arrangement whereby the share of the grant was to be paid to the Board of Works after the Local Authority had obtained from that Board an instalment of a loan for carrying out the Labourers Acts was to ensure the application of the grant for the purposes for which it was given. The Local Government Board observe that the replacement of the Guardians by an Inspector in these cases removes all doubt which can exist upon this point; and Their Lordships understand that a further safeguard will be provided by the fact that the accounts which the Inspector so acting renders to the authorities of the defaulting Unions will be audited by the Board's Auditors, who will be able to ascertain whether there are eventually any unexpended advances repayable to the state.

I am to add that Their Lordships presume that the Commissioners of Public Works will be made aware of this arrangement.

I am, &c.,

E. W. HAMILTON.

The Chief Secretary,
Dublin Castle.

NO. 1.—INSTRUCTIONAL MEMORANDUM as to the manner in which VACCINATION should be PERFORMED.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
25th January, 1895.

SIR,

The Local Government Board for Ireland forward, herewith, for your information, a copy of an instructional Memorandum which the Board have framed, containing their views as to the manner in which the operation of vaccination should be performed, and the Board would recommend you, in vaccinating persons in the discharge of your duty as Medical Officer, to be guided by the directions contained therein.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
THOS. A. MOONEY, Secretary.

To each Medical Officer of a Workhouse and each Medical Officer of a Dispensary District.

ENCLOSURE to the FOREGOING.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD FOR IRELAND.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR VACCINATORS.

(1.) Except so far as any immediate danger of small-pox may require, vaccinate only subjects who are in good health. As regards infants, ascertain that there is not any febrile state, nor any irritation of the bowels, nor any unhealthy state of skin; especially no chafing or eczema behind the ears, or in the groin, or elsewhere in folds of skin. Do not, except of necessity, vaccinate in cases where there has been recent exposure to the infection of measles or scarlatina, nor where erysipelas is prevailing in or about the place of residence.

(2.) Vaccination from arm to arm with recent liquid lymph is, of all methods of vaccinating, by far the most satisfactory in its results. It is therefore desirable that vaccinators, in carrying out vaccinations, should as far as possible maintain such a succession of cases as will enable them, as a general rule, to operate by that method.

The preserved lymph of the Vaccine Department of the Local Government Board for Ireland is sent out as follows:—(1.) Liquid in hermetically sealed capillary tubes (2.) Dry on ivory points; and the lymph preserved in these ways respectively is to be used according to the following instructions:—

(1.) In proceeding to use a charged capillary tube—snip off its two ends; then, from one end of the tube, blow the lymph through the opposite end upon the arm of one of the infants, over the place where the operation is to be performed, having had previously two or three other infants' arms prepared for vaccination. The lancet is then to be loaded from the drop, and inserted into the arms of the children prepared to receive it, but enough is to be left upon the original arm to vaccinate that child. Unless the tube be very copiously charged not more than two children are to be vaccinated from it. The insertion should be made in four spots as hereafter directed.

(2.) In operating with a charged ivory point use no water to soften the lymph. In this mode of vaccinating the operator should make a few scratches just through the cuticle, only sufficiently deep to damp the surface with blood. These scratches should be made in four spots, each covering a surface about so large  at nearly one inch apart, over the site of the insertion of the deltoid muscle. The scratches may be abrasions of the cuticle by fine parallel lines so  or by further cross-scratch thus  The operation

may be performed on both arms when the surface available, or the position usually selected is of limited extent. The operator should proceed with caution and take time. The charged point should be laid with the flat of its pointed or charged end upon the surface freshly damped by the blood, and the lymph is to be rubbed in finally and slowly, looking at the surface of the point during the operation occasionally, till it be observed that all the lymph is off, and the ivory bare. Three or four points are sufficient for the operation. On no account should incisions be made and the point of the ivory inserted into them; and it should be borne in mind that the vaccine virus ought not to reach the subcutaneous cellular tissue. The child should be kept under observation till the spots are perfectly dry, and orders given that the arms must not be washed; and that they should be kept free from all pressure, hurt, or irritation. The ivory points when used should be carefully washed and returned to this Office periodically. Tube boxes are also to be returned.

(3.) Never either use or furnish lymph which has in it any, even the slightest, admixture of blood. In storing lymph, be careful to keep separate the charges obtained from different subjects, and to affix to each set of charges the name, or the number in your Register, of the subject from whom the lymph was derived. Keep such note of all supplies of lymph which you use or furnish as will always enable you, in any case of complaint, to identify the origin of the lymph.

(4.) Never take lymph from cases of re-vaccination. Take lymph only from subjects who are in good health, and, as far as you can ascertain, of healthy parentage; preferring children whose families are known to you, and who have elder brothers or sisters of undoubted healthiness. Always carefully examine the subject as to any existing skin-diseases, and especially as to any signs of hereditary syphilis. Take lymph only from well-characterized, uninjured vesicles. Take it (as may be done in all regular cases on the day week after vaccination) at the stage when the vesicles are fully formed and plump, but when there is no perceptible commencement of areola. Open the vesicles with scrupulous care to avoid drawing blood. Take no lymph which, as it issues from the vesicle, is not perfectly clear and transparent, or is at all thin and watery. Do not, under ordinary circumstances, take more lymph from a vesicle than will suffice for the immediate vaccination of five subjects, or for the charging of seven ivory points, or for the filling of three capillary tubes; and from larger or smaller vesicles take only in like proportion to their size. Never squeeze or drain any vesicles. Be careful never to transfer blood from the subject you vaccinate to the subject from whom you take lymph.

(5.) Scrupulously observe in your inspections every sign which tests the efficiency and purity of your lymph. Note any case wherein the vaccine vesicle is unduly hastened or otherwise irregular in its development, or wherein any undue local irritation arises; and if similar results ensue in other cases vaccinated with the same lymph, desist at once from employing it. Consider that your lymph ought to be changed, if your cases, at the usual time of inspection on the day week after vaccination, have not, as a rule, their vesicles entirely free from areola.

(6.) Keep in good condition the lancets or other instruments which you use for vaccinating, and do not use them for other surgical operations. When you vaccinate, have water and a napkin at your side, with which invariably cleanse your instrument after one operation before proceeding to another.

(7.) Lymph may be obtained on personal application at the vaccine Department, 45, Upper Sackville-street, every day, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, p.m.

Letters of application for lymph should be prepaid and addressed as follows:—

To the Secretary,

Vaccine Department,

(Local Government Board),

45, Upper Sackville-street,

Dublin.

Lymph is only distributed to legally qualified Medical Practitioners, and it is particularly requested that, upon written application for lymph being made, the name and address of the applicant may be perfectly legible.

NO. 2.—VACCINATION—LYMPH SUPPLY; USE OF SHIELDS.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

SIR,

25th January, 1895.

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to draw the attention of Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts, as Public Vaccinators, and of the Medical Officers of Workhouses to the importance of protecting, by vaccination, all infants and unvaccinated children throughout their districts, and in the workhouses under their charge, respectively.

In consequence of the prevalence of small-pox in Dublin, cases of small-pox, traceable to the metropolis, have occurred in several parts of Ireland, and the Secretary of the Vaccine Department of the Board finds it difficult to meet the sudden and extensive requisitions for lymph which reach him whenever a sporadic case of small-pox occurs. The Local Government Board would strongly advise the medical officers of dispensary districts and of workhouses to take such steps, without delay, as may be necessary for the protection of all children remaining unvaccinated, and to take from suitable cases, on the eighth day after vaccination, a sufficient supply of lymph to meet any sudden demand for re-vaccination to which the introduction of a case of small-pox may give rise.

The Local Government Board would impress upon all medical officers the importance of performing vaccination in the manner prescribed in their circular* of this day's date (No. 3 M. 1895), and they would advise vaccinators not to take lymph from vesicles later than the eighth day after vaccination, and, so far as may be in their power, to prevent "shields" being used for protecting the recently vaccinated arms of children.

Lymph should never be taken from cases of re-vaccination.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

THOS. A. MOONEY, Secretary.

To each Medical Officer of a Dispensary District,
and each Medical Officer of a Workhouse.

* See page 135.

No. 3.—SMALL-POX—RE-VACCINATION.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
 Sir, 14th February, 1895.

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to forward to you the accompanying copies of circulars dated the 5th of December, 1892,* and the 3rd of July, 1894,† issued to the Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts and of Workhouses and to Executive Sanitary Officers, respectively, and I am to request that, in the event of any case of small-pox appearing in the dispensary district or workhouse of which you are Medical Officer, you will be careful to observe the directions and suggestions contained in those circulars.

I am, at the same time, to enclose, for your information, a copy of an Order‡ made by the Board on the 7th inst., reducing the limits of age prescribed by their Order of the 2nd of August, 1888, at and after which persons may be re-vaccinated by Medical Officers of dispensary districts.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
 THOS. A. MOONEY, Secretary.

To each Medical Officer of a Dispensary District,
 and each Medical Officer of a Workhouse.

ENCLOSURE to the FOREGOING.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
 Sir, 5th December, 1892.

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to call the attention of Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts and of Workhouses to the fact that small-pox is at present prevalent in certain parts of England, and to state that the Board are desirous that in the event of any case being introduced to this country full particulars respecting it should be at once forwarded to them. With this view I am to request that if any case of the disease shall appear in the dispensary district or workhouse of which you are a medical officer you will be good enough to furnish the Board with an immediate report containing the following particulars:—

- (I.) Name, age, and address of the patient;
- (II.) Locality in the United Kingdom in which the patient appears to have contracted the disease, and route by which the patient travelled to Ireland;
- (III.) Date when first seen;
- (IV.) Stage and character of the small-pox, whether discrete or confluent;
- (V.) Evidence as to marks of primary vaccination, specifying number and character, whether typical or otherwise, of such marks;
- (VI.) Precautions adopted by you as to isolation of patient, disposal of infected clothing and bedding, and disinfection of premises;
- (VII.) Steps taken to vaccinate unprotected children in neighbourhood, and to re-vaccinate nurses and others in attendance upon, or in close communication with, patient.

* See this page.

‡ See page 133.

Any further particulars you can furnish as to the places the patient may have passed through and his occupation during the twelve days preceding his actual illness will be useful in tracing the source of, and controlling the danger consequent upon, the infection.

I am, sir,

Your obedient servant,

THOS. A. MOONEY, Secretary.

To

Each Medical Officer of a Dispensary
District, and each Medical Officer of a Workhouse.

No. 5.—COMMITTEES of MANAGEMENT of DISPENSARY DISTRICTS.

Local Government Board, Dublin,
28th March, 1895.

SIR,

The Local Government Board for Ireland desire to call your attention to the circular of the Poor Law Commissioners dated the 21st of March, 1862, relating to the annual appointment of dispensary committees and wardens, and to the extracts from previous circulars appended thereto, and they request that you will take the necessary steps, as pointed out in the circular referred to, to place before the Board of Guardians, after the annual election of guardians, a correct list of the members of the Board entitled under section 7 of the Medical Charities Act (14 & 15 Vic., cap. 68) to be members of the respective dispensary committees in the union. The Guardians should then, in each case in which it may be necessary to do so, elect a sufficient number of ratepayers possessing the qualifications prescribed by the section mentioned, so that the number of members of each committee shall amount to the number authorised by sealed Order.

This ought to be done by resolution and recorded on the minutes.

If it should appear from the Returning Officer's return of the election that there are any vacancies in the office of guardian, the Board of Guardians should elect only such a number of qualified ratepayers to serve on the dispensary committees as would be necessary if the number of guardians were complete, so that the persons who may be returned to supply the vacancies may become members of the respective committees upon which they may be qualified and entitled to act.

As soon as the committee shall have been completed for any dispensary district, you should give notice to each member thereof of the day upon which the election of chairman and vice-chairman and other honorary officers for the year will take place, in accordance with articles 6 & 7 of the Dispensary Regulations of 3rd November, 1885.

The Board enclose three copies of a form for a return of officers of the several dispensary committees in the union to enable you to make the return in duplicate to this office and to retain a copy for the use of the Board of Guardians, and they request that you will procure the necessary information with the least possible delay and then forward the return to this office.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

THOS. A. MOONEY, Secretary.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 14.—GENERAL ORDER respecting DAIRIES, COW-SHEDS, and MILKSHOPS, made in pursuance of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 and 1886.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD FOR IRELAND.

WHEREAS by Section 34 of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), it was enacted that the Lord Lieutenant, acting by the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland (hereinafter referred to as "the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council"), might from time to time make such general and special Orders as they should think fit, subject and according to the provisions of the Act, for the purposes specified in that section :

AND WHEREAS on the 9th day of August, 1879, the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council, in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the principal Act, made a General Order known as "The Dairies, Cow-sheds, and Milkshops (Ireland) Order of August, 1879" (hereinafter referred to as "the Order of 1879") :

AND WHEREAS by section 9 (1) of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1886 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1886"), as applied to Ireland by section 9 (8), the powers vested in the Privy Council of making general or special Orders under section 34 of the principal Act were transferred to the Local Government Board for Ireland, and by section 9 (5) of the said Act the like penalties for offences against orders or regulations made for the purposes of section 34 of the principal Act as amended by the said section may be imposed by the Local Government Board or sanitary authority making the same, and such offences may be prosecuted and penalties recovered in a summary manner, and subject to the like provisions, as if such orders or regulations were bye-laws of a sanitary authority under the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and by section 9 (6) (a) of the said Act, the Order of 1879, and any regulations thereunder, or having effect in pursuance thereof, made by any local authority under the principal Act, shall be deemed to have been made respectively by the Local Government Board for Ireland and by a sanitary authority under the said section :

AND WHEREAS by Article 7 of the Order of 1879, it is provided that a local authority may, from time to time, make regulations for prescribing and regulating the cleansing of dairies and cowsheds, in the occupation of persons following the trade of cowkeepers or dairymen, and the cleansing of milk stores, milkshops, and milk vessels, used for containing milk for sale by such persons :

AND WHEREAS by Article 12 of the Order of 1879, provision is made for the registration by the local authority of cowkeepers, dairymen, and purveyors of milk :

AND WHEREAS, by a General Order made by Us in pursuance of the principal Act and the Act of 1886, and dated the 7th day of July, 1886, it was ordered that each local authority might, from time to time, make regulations for the inspection of cattle in dairy-yards and cowsheds, and for other purposes therein mentioned :

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to make further provisions as hereinafter mentioned respecting regulations made under the Order of 1879, or under the aforesaid General Order, dated the 7th day of July, 1886, and that penalties should be imposed for offences against the Order of 1879 :

NOW THEREFORE, WE, the Local Government Board for Ireland, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in Us under the principal Act and the Act of 1886, do hereby order as follows :—

2.—The local authority shall send to us a copy of every such regulation and of every order of the nature of a regulation made by them pursuant to Article 12 of the Order of 1879, not less than one month before the date named in such regulation or order for the same to come into force.

3.—If at any time we are satisfied on inquiry with respect to any such regulation or order of the nature of a regulation, that the same is of too restrictive a character or otherwise objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall not come into operation, or shall thereupon cease to operate, as the case may be.

4.—Any question arising as to what are orders of the nature of regulations within the meaning of the foregoing Articles, numbered 2 and 3, shall be determined by us, and such determination shall be conclusive.

5.—If any person is guilty of an offence against the Order of 1879, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty of Five Pounds, and in the case of a continuing offence to a further penalty of Forty Shillings for each day after written notice of the offence from the Local Authority.

THE IRISH EDUCATION ORDER, 1895.

By the Lords Justices and Privy Council of Ireland.

S. WALKER, C.

WOLSELEY, F.M.

In pursuance of the Irish Education Acts, 1892 and 1893, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby in Us vested, and of every other power enabling Us in this behalf, We, the Lords Justices-General and General Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice and consent of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, do order as follows:—

That the following shall be General Rules for the regulation of the procedure under the seventeenth section of the Irish Education Act, 1892, as amended by the first section of the Irish Education Act, 1893, and for carrying the same into effect, and for fixing the taxation and payment of costs to be taken, allowed, and paid in relation to the confirmation of Provisional Orders:—

I. This Order may be cited as the Irish Education Order, 1895.

II. A Petition, lodged with the Local Government Board for Ireland, against a Provisional Order made by that Board, under the said Acts, shall, in addition to the signatures of the Petitioners thereto, state in the title or body of the Petition the names and addresses of the Petitioners, and facts and circumstances showing that such Petitioners are entitled to lodge a Petition pursuant to the provisions of the said sections. The Petition shall also set forth the grounds of objection to the Provisional Order, and shall specify by name of street and number of house some place in the city of Dublin whereat notices and papers relating to the Petition and the proceedings thereunder may be delivered for the Petitioners.

III. Within fourteen days after the period for lodging Petitions against a Provisional Order has expired, the Local Government Board, if it be necessary, and if they desire to make application in writing for an Order in Council confirming such Provisional Order, shall lodge such application with the Clerk of the Privy Council, at his office, in Dublin Castle.

IV. Such application shall contain the dates and short abstracts of the Provisional Order and of the Petition or Petitions that have been lodged against it.

V. The Local Government Board, when lodging with the Clerk of the Privy Council the said application, shall lodge therewith one copy of the following documents:—

- a. The Provisional Order.
- b. Each Petition against the same.
- c. The Petition presented to the Local Government Board by the Trustees appointed, pursuant to the provisions of the Irish Education Act, 1892, section 17.

- f. Such other documents as the Local Government Board may consider necessary for the use of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, on the hearing of the Petition.

VI. Within seven days after lodging the said application, the Local Government Board shall give written notice to the Trustees through their Solicitor, or other person acting on their behalf, of the Petitions that have been lodged against the Provisional Order, and of the application made to the Lord Lieutenant in Council to confirm the same.

VII. The Clerk of the Privy Council shall, on the expiration of seven days after the lodging of the application, give notice by advertisement in the Dublin Gazette and in some one newspaper circulating within the poor law union where the land proposed to be taken is situate, and also by letters posted to the Solicitor, or other person acting on behalf of the Trustees, and to the Petitioners, addressed to them at the place in the city of Dublin named in the Petition, of the day fixed for the hearing of the application by the Lord Lieutenant in Council: such day shall not be earlier than ten days after the publication and posting of the said notice.

And whereas by the "Rules Publication Act, 1893," section 2, it is provided that where a rule-making authority certifies that on account of urgency or any special reason any rule should come into immediate operation, it shall be lawful for such authority to make any such rules to come into operation forthwith as provisional rules, but such provisional rules should only continue in force until rules should have been made in accordance with the foregoing provisions of the said "Rules Publication Act":

II.—CIRCULARS.

No. 1.—LETTER to SANITARY AUTHORITIES recommending measures for preventing the SPREAD of SMALL-POX.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

3rd July, 1894.

SIR,

I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to inform the Sanitary Authority that some cases of Small-pox have recently occurred in Dublin, and that isolated cases of the disease have been reported to the Board from Londonderry and Waterford. Owing to the infectious nature of the disease it is most necessary that prompt and effectual measures should be taken, not only in the City and suburbs of Dublin, but in all Sanitary Districts, to prevent it from spreading; and I am to draw the attention of the Sanitary Authority and of their officers to the necessity that exists for the exercise of great vigilance in ascertaining as early as possible the particulars of any cases of Small-pox that may occur, and for taking the utmost precaution to prevent the extension of this formidable disease.

In the opinion of the Board the most effectual means for preventing the spread of Small-pox will be found in :—

(1.) The immediate removal to Hospital and the rigorous isolation of patients suffering from the disease.

(2.) The destruction by fire of all clothing, bedding, &c., which may have recently come in contact with the patient.

(3.) The thorough cleansing and disinfection of premises from which the patient shall have been removed.

(4.) The protection by vaccination of all unvaccinated children, and the re-vaccination of adults who may have been in contact with a Small-pox patient.

(5.) The careful inspection of vagrants before admission to the casual wards of Workhouses, and the provision of observation wards for suspicious cases.

(6.) The Registration of all common Lodging Houses, and the adoption of bye-laws for their regulation, in accordance with the terms of section 91 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878. Tramps, or casuals, have been known to convey the infection of Small-pox from town to town, and it would be well, therefore, for Sanitary Authorities and Boards of Guardians to take every possible precaution against this danger.

The Local Government Board trust that the above recommendations will receive the careful consideration of the Sanitary Authority, and they have directed me to forward the enclosed additional copies of this Circular for distribution among the Medical Officers of Health and other Officers of the Sanitary District.

Copies of the Board's Circular letter of the 5th of December, 1892, are also enclosed, and I am to request that the Medical Officer of Health of each district may be directed to report, at once, to the Local Government Board any cases of the disease which may occur in his district, so as to enable the Board to confer with the Sanitary Authority in dealing with the outbreak.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
THOS A. MOONEY, Secretary.

To the Executive Sanitary Officer of each Sanitary District, Urban and Rural.

No. 3.—PRECAUTIONS AGAINST CHOLERA.

Local Government Board, Dublin,

SIR,

23rd July, 1894.

Cholera having again made its appearance on the Continent of Europe, the Local Government Board for Ireland desire to draw the attention of the Sanitary Authority to the advice contained in the Instructional Circulars already addressed to them pointing out the defensive measures which it is the duty of Sanitary Authorities to adopt. The Board desire particularly to refer to their Circulars of the 27th of August^o and 4th of November, 1892[†], and of the 30th of January[‡] and 30th of September, 1893[§], and, if any of the precautionary measures suggested in those Circulars have not yet been fully carried out, the Board have to request that they may receive immediate attention, and that the Sanitary Authority will satisfy themselves that the district under their charge has been placed in the best condition of preparation to meet the threatened danger of the extension of the disease to this portion of the United Kingdom.

Ireland has so far escaped a visitation which has been severely felt during the last three years in some parts of Western Europe, but this fact affords no reason for any neglect on the part of the Sanitary Authority to take every possible precaution against the introduction and spread of the disease, which, as pointed out to Sanitary Authorities in 1892, falls with severity upon districts where sanitation has been neglected and passes lightly over those which have had the advantage of enlightened and painstaking sanitary administration.

The Board in their Circular of the 29th of August, 1892¶, addressed to Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts and of Workhouses, pointed out the importance of dealing promptly with any cases of premonitory diarrhoea, and they would suggest that the Sanitary Authority should direct their Medical Officers of Health to report to them any prevalence of diarrhoeal disease in their respective districts, in order that the Sanitary Authority may give all necessary instructions to enable their officers to deal with such local outbreaks.

III.—CORRESPONDENCE.

REPORTS made by the MEDICAL INSPECTORS of the LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD on the existence of SMALL-POX in their respective Districts.

No. 1.—REPORT of DR. T. J. STAFFORD.

SMALL-POX IN LEINSTER.

Dublin, April, 1895.

GENTLEMEN,—

I have the honour to submit for the information of the Board: report upon the prevalence of small-pox in the Leinster District. As Dublin is the only portion of the District in which the disease can be said to have reached epidemic proportions, the Report deals principally with Dublin.

As small-pox is still prevalent my observations refer to the period between the end of May, 1894, when the first cases occurred, and the 31st March, 1895, and they are intended only as a review of the principal points connected with the origin and progress of the disease, so far as it has gone, the completion of the Report being necessarily left over until the conclusion of the outbreak.

I propose, in the first place, to examine the Dublin outbreak, and for the sake of convenience I shall do so in the following order:—

- A.—Former outbreaks of small-pox in Dublin.
- B.—Origin of present outbreak.
- C.—Spread of the disease.
- D.—Extent of the disease.
- E.—Exciting and controlling influences.

A.—FORMER OUTBREAKS OF SMALL-POX IN DUBLIN.

1. Dublin Registration District.—When I speak of Dublin I mean the Dublin Registration District, which includes, in addition to Dublin city which has a population of 245,001, the townships of Rathmines, Pembroke, Blackrock, Kingstown, Kilmainham, Clontarf, and Drumcondra, together with portions of the rural districts and villages of Howth, Coolock, Finglas, and Glasnevin, having a total population of 349,594.

2. Former Outbreaks in the above Area.—The presence of small-pox in the midland towns of England proved, as it almost always has in the past, to be a precursor of small-pox in Dublin. Sir Charles Cameron, the Superintendent Medical Officer of Health for Dublin, in his report for January, 1877, puts the following words into the mouth of the Public Health Committee:—"We trust that we may be mistaken, but we predict that small-pox will become epidemic in Ireland in 1877. This loathsome disease has been slowly but steadily spreading throughout many parts of England during the last two or three months; if it becomes epidemic in Liverpool we may expect its early arrival in Dublin." Sir Charles Cameron's predictions were duly fulfilled; so doubt they were founded upon what had occurred some years previously when small-pox, which had broken out in France in a virulent form during the Franco-Prussian War, gradually filtered through England, and in 1871 and 1872 scourged Ireland.

The following table shows the death rate from small-pox in Dublin for the last quarter of a century :—

DEATH RATE FROM SMALL-POX IN DUBLIN, 1870 TO 1895.

Year.	Deaths.	Year.	Deaths.	Year.	Deaths.
1870	—	1879	520	1888	1
1871	207	1880	266	1889	—
1872	1,350	1881	11	1890	1
1873	16	1882	—	1891	—
1874	2	1883	—	1892	—
1875	2	1884	—	1893	—
1876	9	1885	2	1894	78
1877	38	1886	—	3 months of 1895 (to 31 March).	78
1878	567	1887	1

I regret that I could not find any reliable statistics of the attack rate in Dublin for the above periods. It will, however, be observed from the above table of deaths that Dublin, in the twenty-four years and three months since 1870, has suffered to the extent of 3,144 deaths from small-pox. Between 1871 and 1881, both inclusive, small-pox was never completely absent during any year, and caused no fewer than 2,988 deaths, whereas, from 1882 to 1893, both inclusive, only five deaths occurred.

B.—ORIGIN OF THE PRESENT OUTBREAK.

The precise origin of the present outbreak has never been accurately determined, and, as will appear from the following history, it is not quite clear whether or not the first patient admitted to hospital really introduced the disease, or was merely himself the victim of the ignorance or carelessness of another sufferer.

On the 28th May, 1894, a case of small-pox was admitted to the Hardwicke Small-pox Hospital, the person attacked being a man aged 30 years, and of no fixed residence. The only reliable evidence of where this man came from, or what he had been doing for some time previous to his admission to hospital, is obtained from the records of the North Dublin Union, which show that he slept on the night of the 24th of May in the casual ward of the workhouse. He is supposed to have slept on preceding and succeeding nights at various common lodging houses of the poorer sort, but owing to the man's determination not to give any truthful information of his whereabouts for the fourteen days previous to his admission, it was impossible to trace his movements, or to form any idea as to how or where he contracted the disease.

On the 31st of May four inmates of the workhouse, all males, were sent to hospital suffering from small-pox, three of them had not been outside the house for months previously, the fourth, however, was a man admitted to the workhouse on the 29th of May, who, like the first case, had no fixed residence, and had been sleeping in various lodging-houses of the class frequented by the first case. As I pointed out in my report to the Board on the 1st of June, 1894, the whole circumstances could not well be more unsatisfactory or more likely to lead to a serious outbreak of small-pox. Whether either of the cases mentioned was the importer of the disease is a question which cannot now be determined; for all practical purposes, however, these two casualties may be regarded as the starting point of the disease, which, commencing in Dublin, has now continued for ten months, has attacked many persons, has done an enormous amount of damage to the trade of the city, and has been imported to many of the large towns throughout Ireland.

C.—SPREAD OF THE DISEASE.

The following table shows the weekly admissions to hospital, and gives an idea of the rate of increase and decrease of the disease:—

SMALL POX.—Weekly admissions to Hospitals:—

May.	June.	July.	August.
3, 3, 3, 5	1, 1, 1, 4, 3	0, 4, 2, 0, 4	9, 26, 37, 14, 16
September.	October.	November.	December.
16, 12, 13, 19, 8	8, 28, 15, 28	37, 24, 18, 37, 31	86, 113, 32, 74
January.	February.	March.	—
71, 88, 61, 64	69, 60, 56, 37	31, 34, 30, 21, 20

It will be observed that at the onset the progress of the disease was slow, and that for the first two months only twenty-five cases occurred, and that it was not until the middle of December it reached its greatest height during the period under review. November, December, January, and the earlier part of February were the months during which most cases were sent to hospital, thus the well-known influence of season upon the spread of small-pox was observed, the periods of long nights and inclement days, during which the poor are driven to spend so much of their time in badly ventilated and over-crowded dwellings, where disease is most readily bred and communicated, being also the season of increased prevalence of small-pox.

D.—EXTENT OF THE OUTBREAK.

A fairly accurate estimate may be formed of the total number of small-pox cases which have occurred in Dublin between the 28th May, 1894, and 31st March, 1895. We know that exclusive of all doubtful cases, or cases which subsequently proved on observation not to be small-pox, 1,251 cases were treated in the two principal hospitals, and that 135 of these proved fatal, being a death rate of 11·03 per cent. The Registrar General returns 151 deaths for the same period, which leaves a balance of 13 deaths as occurring either in other hospitals or in their own homes. Allowing the same death rate for the persons dying elsewhere, we would have 143 persons to add to 1,251, which gives us a total of 1,394 cases within the registration area. These figures are of course merely approximate.

The attack rate for the registration area amounted to 3·9 per thousand of the population, but in the city the attack rate amounted to 5·0 per thousand of the city population. The disease was largely confined to the city, and the suburban townships suffered to a very small extent. As the only division between some of the townships and the city is in some instances a roadway, and in others a canal, the fact is somewhat remarkable. In the same way the city, which is divided by the River Liffey into north and south city, was somewhat unequally attacked. Smallpox which commenced on the north side of the city at the end of May, spread on that side to a very considerable extent before it established itself on the south side, although many of the places on the northern side where it appeared were separated from each other by greater distances than the southern side of the river. The facilities for crossing the river by the bridges are very numerous, and the condition of the people is not very different. As the disease, however, got introduced, established itself, and spread upon the south side, it gradually subsided on the north, and almost became extinct, then later on the north side became re-infected, and both sides of the river now supply about an equal number of cases weekly.

E.—EXCITING AND CONTROLLING INFLUENCES.

Under this heading I propose to examine the following factors in controlling or spreading smallpox :—

- (1.) The influence of vaccination.
- (2.) The influence of sanitary administration.
- (3.) The influence of isolation and isolation hospitals.

(1.) The Influence of Vaccination.

It cannot be said that in Dublin there is any organised opposition to the operation of vaccination; there is, however, the usual apathy of poor people in large towns, who either forget or neglect to have their children vaccinated just as they frequently postpone the performance of any duty which is not of direct monetary advantage to the person performing it. The Boards of Guardians, in whose hands the administration of the Vaccination Acts is placed, require in most cases to improve the system under which parents and others are noticed to comply with the Acts. Hitherto the Guardians of the North and South Dublin Unions have paid their Relieving Officers either fixed salaries or sums varying from 3*d.* to 6*d.* per case for noticing the defaulters under the Acts. As the notices were in many instances sent through the post to persons who had changed their address and never received the document, or when they did receive notice paid little attention to it, the system of noticing defaulters was not very satisfactory.

The Guardians of the North and South Unions, acting upon my advice, have lately altered this system, and propose in future to pay the officers by results—in this way—a list of defaulters (children over three months not vaccinated) is placed in the hands of the Relieving Officer every three months, the Guardians propose to pay a fixed sum (6*d.*) for each defaulter for whom the Relieving Officer produces a certificate of successful vaccination. By this means, it becomes the interest of the officer to see that the Vaccination Acts are complied with, and forgetful parents are visited by a person having a direct interest in their complying with the requirements of the law.

The number of persons who under the old system escaped vaccination was very large, as may be judged from the following figures.

The number of children over twelve months of age who presented themselves for primary vaccination to the public vaccinators, between the 1st June, 1894, and 31st March, 1895, was 5,976, and a large proportion of these defaulters were between four and twelve years of age. Of the 5,976 children over twelve months of age and not vaccinated, 4,247 resided on the north side of the city. The relative population of each side is—north, 116,909; south, 128,092, so that it will be seen the Guardians and their officers on the north side of the city have not been so energetic in enforcing compliance with the Vaccination Acts as they have been on the south.

Calculations founded on the above figures have been made and publicly expressed with a view of proving that there must have been, at the commencement of the outbreak, considerably over 20,000 unvaccinated persons in Dublin. I do not think that we are in possession of sufficiently accurate data to base any reliable information upon the figures before us; it must be remembered in making any such calculation that great pressure is brought to bear upon the unvaccinated when small-pox appears, and that during an epidemic they seek the protection of vaccination in proportionately large numbers, and, therefore, that the fact of nearly 6,000 persons, who were not vaccinated, presenting themselves for the performance of the operation, does not furnish conclusive evidence that there are 14,000 remaining who have not sought protection. Although I cannot guarantee the figures as correct, I shall accept them as a rough estimate of the proportion of the vaccinated to the unvaccinated in Dublin.

I shall now in the following table endeavour to show how the vaccinated and unvaccinated, the well-vaccinated and ill-vaccinated, classes fared, firstly, as regards death from small-pox, and secondly, as regards immunity from the disease.

Table No. 1 deals in the first place with the mortality and state of vaccination at various ages. It further shows the degree of vaccination amongst the vaccinated who died of small-pox. I may remark that the standard of vaccination laid down by the Local Government Board for its public vaccinators, and practised by them for more than ten years, is that not less than four typical scars shall be produced in each case.

It will be observed from the table that of 138 deaths 47 were in the vaccinated and 90 in the unvaccinated, that in the first five years of life there was no death amongst the vaccinated class, whilst there were 29 deaths in the unvaccinated; that in the first ten years of life only one death occurred in the vaccinated (and that in a child of nine years old and very imperfectly vaccinated), whereas forty-four deaths occurred in the unvaccinated; that as the effects of primary vaccination wear off with age there is a large increase in the mortality in the vaccinated class.

The figures in the first portion of the table are, I consider, remarkable, showing, as they do, an extraordinary immunity in vaccinated children from death from small-pox.

When it is remembered that previous to the introduction of vaccination the death rate from small-pox amongst children was, as in most other zymotic diseases, excessive, we begin to perceive what vaccination has done towards the prevention of small-pox. Statistics taken from some towns in England and the Continent, where records were kept during former centuries, show that of 36,755 deaths from small-pox, 17,252 were in children under 2 years of age; and Dr. Watt, writing in 1813, declared, that before A.D. 1800, twenty out of every hundred children born perished from small-pox. When we compare these figures with those before us, where no vaccinated child under nine years died of small-pox, the effects of primary vaccination upon the child population is strikingly apparent.

The second portion of table 1 carries the matter further, and shows the effects of multiple vaccination marks, or, in other words, of efficient and inefficient vaccination in preventing death from small-pox. It will be observed that in 47 vaccinated cases, where death resulted, 25 or 53 per cent. had only one vaccination scar; 15 or 31·9 per cent. had 2 scars; 3 or 6·3 per cent. had 3 scars; in no single case was it recorded that death resulted in a person vaccinated in accordance with the standard laid down by the Local Government Board, although fully 60 per cent. of the vaccinations in Dublin are performed by the public vaccinators, and hence are presumed to be vaccinated in accordance with the Board's order, a sufficiently convincing reason, I hope, for private practitioners adopting the practice of the public vaccinators, and performing the operation of vaccination in the way which experience points out as being the most reliable protection against small-pox. Medical men ought in this important matter to put aside all secondary considerations, and, acting in the best interests of their patients and the public, maintain the standard of efficient vaccination, by producing not less than four typical marks in all cases of primary vaccination.

Table No. 2 deals with the conditions as to vaccination in 1,251 cases of small-pox, treated in Cork-street and the Hardwicke Small-pox Hospitals.

It will be observed that in the class "under 10 years" only 149 cases occurred, and that of these 46, or 30.9 per cent., were amongst the vaccinated, whilst 103, or 69.1 per cent., were unvaccinated.

Of the 46 vaccinated cases, 19, or 41 per cent., were vaccinated by one scar; 20, or 43 per cent., by 2 scars; 2 by three scars; and 5 by four scars.

The fact that amongst the attacked there were more persons vaccinated by two marks than by one, in this class as well as in the class "over 10 years," is explained by vaccination by two insertions being more common than by one. In fact it is even more common than appears, for it must be borne in mind that where the operation is not very carefully performed it frequently fails in one of the insertions, so that persons vaccinated in two places may result in having only one mark produced.

In the class "over 10 years" it will be seen that 851 cases were vaccinated, and 178 were unvaccinated. In looking over the ages of the vaccinated who contracted small-pox, one cannot help being struck by the manner in which lapse of time tends to diminish the protective power of vaccination, and the necessity there is for a repetition of the operation.

Possibly the most remarkable feature of table 2 is the part which deals with the protection afforded by multiple vaccination. It will be seen that when the operation was performed up to the required standard of efficient vaccination, viz:—4 marks, only five persons "under 10 years" were attacked, and only 20 "over 10 years."

The conclusions to be drawn from both tables are (1) that no properly vaccinated person died of small-pox, and (2) that only 25 persons who had been properly vaccinated contracted small-pox. Fairly conclusive evidence, I think, of the protective power of efficient vaccination.

Re-Vaccination.

The number of re-vaccinations performed by the public vaccinators (17 in number) of the city, from the 1st June, 1894, to the 31st of March, 1895, was 25,881. This does not include the large number of re-vaccinations performed in the workhouses, asylums, and other public institutions, nor does it take into consideration the vast amount of re-vaccinations performed by private and club practitioners, of which no record is available. A moderate estimate of the total number of re-vaccinations in the period mentioned would be 40,000. Of these about twenty persons in all were subsequently admitted to hospital suffering from small-pox, but in not one of these cases had the operation of re-vaccination been performed more than fourteen days* previous to the onset of the disease, so that it may be said that no successfully re-vaccinated person (recently re-vaccinated) contracted small-pox, as in all the cases the person had been re-vaccinated after exposure to the disease. Small-pox was contracted in six cases where the operation of re-vaccination had been performed at periods varying from seven to twenty years previously, and in five cases where the patients had previously suffered from an attack of small-pox.

The total staff of doctors, nurses, and attendants who were in direct contact with small-pox in Cork-street, Hardwicke, and Kilmainham Hospitals numbered about 110; of these, all, save two, had been recently re-vaccinated or had had small-pox; both of the nurses who had not been re-vaccinated contracted small-pox, and not one of the rest of this large staff, although living for months in an atmosphere of small-pox, was attacked by the disease!

In connection with the operation of vaccination, I am informed by the Registrar General that only one death from "cow-pox or the effects of vaccination" has been registered in the province of Leinster within the last five years. In that one case, which occurred in February, 1894, I made a special inquiry and report, and I was able to bring conclusive evidence to show that the lymph used had nothing to do with the child's death.

(2.) The effects of Sanitary Administration.

Whilst the administration of the Vaccination Acts and the responsibility of providing hospital accommodation for infectious diseases within the Dublin registration district is shared by the North and South Dublin Boards of Guardians, and to a smaller extent by the Rathdown Guardians, the ordinary sanitary duties, including the removal of patients to hospital, disinfection of clothing, &c., rests with the various sanitary authorities, urban and rural, within the registration area, in all eleven separate sanitary districts. Fortunately the bulk of the work fell upon the district best prepared and fitted to bear the strain. The Public Health Committee of the Corporation of Dublin had within the last two years made considerable preparation in anticipation of an outbreak of Cholera, and were not unprepared to deal with an epidemic of infectious disease. The Infectious Disease (Notification) Act was in force in the city, and in the two most important townships, and was of inestimable value to those sanitary authorities; the city dispensaries had all been connected directly with the Public Health Offices by telephone. In this way prompt notification and removal of patients to hospital were secured, and the Superintendent Medical Officer of Health was enabled to advise with medical officers and let them know of any outbreak of small-pox, and thereby to secure the prompt vaccination of persons in infected houses; new ambulances of an improved type had recently been provided; a Washington Lyons steam disinfectant was at work; and lastly the Public Health Committee and its officers were all keenly alive to the necessity for adopting every possible precaution within their power with a view of preventing the spread of the disease. So far, therefore, as the Corporation of Dublin were concerned the city was not unprepared to deal with the epidemic.

I regret I cannot speak in quite the same way of the state of preparedness, and of the protective measures which it was the duty of the North and South Dublin Guardians to have adopted. I have already shown that the condition of the vaccination in the city, especially in the north city, was not all that could be desired. I shall now briefly touch upon the much larger and equally important subject of the provision of isolation hospitals which the Guardians of the Poor are obliged by the Poor Law Acts to provide for their respective districts.

(3.) The influence of Isolation and Isolation Hospitals.

There can be very little doubt that the prompt removal of patients has been a powerful factor in the prevention of the spread of small-pox in Dublin; at the same time, however, it is necessary to inquire to what extent removal to hospitals fulfilled all the requirements of isolation. The Guardians of the North and South Dublin Unions, as I have already remarked, are responsible for the treatment of small-pox cases by the provision of suitable hospitals for that purpose. In Dublin the guardians have always relied upon the accommodation afforded by two hospitals which are under private management, though to some extent subsidised by government grant; the situation of both hospitals is, owing to their proximity to human dwellings and to public institutions, objectionable as sites for the treatment of small-pox patients. The researches of Mr. Power of the English Local Government Board and other competent observers go to prove that small-pox hospitals situated in the proximity of human dwellings, especially of crowded town dwellings, are a distinct danger to the public health, and are themselves a means of distributing small-pox. I pointed out to the Boards of Guardians the possible dangers attending the treatment of a large number of small-pox patients in the Cork-street and Hardwicke Hospitals, and advised them to erect suitable buildings outside the city, but the immediate outlay of money upon such hospitals proved to be a more potent argument than the unappreciated danger to the public health. When admissions to the Cork-street and Hardwicke Hospitals became too numerous to be dealt with, the Guardians were obliged to utilize some sheds upon the workhouse grounds; these sheds were not sufficient in number or suitable in construction, and I would be sorry in any future outbreak to see them employed for the treatment of the sick or convalescent. The Governors of the hospitals, and particularly the Governors of the Hardwicke Hospital, acted in a most public-spirited manner in placing a large amount of extra hospital accommodation at the disposal of the Guardians, at a time when the Guardians were not prepared to deal with the increased number of patients. At the same time the very fact of adding to the numbers in these hospitals was a further danger to the persons residing within a mile radius of the hospitals, which is the generally accepted area influenced by the presence of small-pox hospitals, and hence should have been carefully guarded against by the provision of one or two properly situated isolation hospitals. It cannot be looked upon as a satisfactory arrangement that a city like Dublin should be dependent for its infectious hospitals upon private enterprise. However well these institutions may be managed, it is most desirable that the sanitary authority or some public board comprised of the various sanitary authorities interested, or the Board of Guardians, should have under their own control, if not all infectious disease hospitals, at least all small-pox hospitals in Dublin. Of the 1,251 patients treated in the Cork-street and Hardwicke Hospitals between May, 1894, and March 31st, 1895, 509 afterwards passed through the Kilmainham Convalescent Sheds, which acted as a means of relieving both hospitals of the convalescents, and left them free to treat acute cases. The convalescent sheds, although on one side they were in very close proximity to a number of poor and thickly populated dwellings, were on the whole fairly isolated, and, during the epidemic, I cannot, so far, trace any cases of small-pox as having been caused by their presence; this, no doubt, is in a large measure due to the well known fact that small-pox is less infective in the convalescent than in the acute stage.

Where the management of a small-pox hospital is not conducted upon the most rigid lines of isolation of the sick, and where the visiting of the sufferers is permitted, either personally, or even by persons gaining admission to an infected area and there making their inquiries; where tradesmen and others are allowed to enter the infected area, and nurses and those connected with the hospitals expose themselves in public places without taking extraordinary precautions to prevent infection from being carried out; when all or any of these various means of conveying the disease exist, the hospital, apart altogether from the risks of aerial contamination, becomes a source from whence small-pox is distributed, and the area of hospital influence becomes so diffuse that it cannot be accurately defined. For this reason I do not submit any maps showing the distribution of the disease. At the same time I desire to point out that all modern experience teaches the fact that small-pox hospitals should be situated in isolated positions outside towns, and that until Dublin has provided for it a properly situated isolation hospital it is not in a position to be defended against serious outbreaks of small-pox with accompanying loss of life, loss of trade, and loss of money to the ratepayers. The enormous cost of the present outbreak is in itself a strong argument in favour of preventive measures being now adopted to control future epidemics of the loathsome disease. I am happy to say that steps have already been taken to induce the various sanitary authorities interested to combine in the erection of a suitable hospital, and I had the pleasure of placing before a very representative conference of members of sanitary authorities in Dublin and its neighbourhood my views upon this subject. I have every reason to hope, from the manner in which the question was taken up by the members of this preliminary conference, that Dublin is within measurable distance of being provided with an isolation hospital situated outside the city.

Small-pox outside Dublin.

Outside the Dublin Registration District, small-pox, although it was conveyed to many of the large towns and some rural districts, was in all cases most promptly and effectually dealt with by the local authorities in the province of Leinster. I know of only one exception to this general rule, and that is Enniscorthy, where a somewhat sharp outbreak of over twenty cases has taken place, and appears likely to continue. It is a noteworthy fact that Enniscorthy is the only district in the province where the Guardians, notwithstanding the advice of their medical officer and myself, and the remonstrances of the Local Government Board, decided not to enforce the compulsory provisions of the Vaccination Acts, a determination which I am happy to say was not persevered in when small-pox actually visited the district. In no other district has the disease taken hold, although it has been introduced to a great number from Dublin. Drogheda, Dundalk, Kilkenny, Parsonstown, Wexford, Carlow, and Athlone are the large towns into which it has been conveyed and promptly suppressed. It has also been imported into the rural districts of the Unions of Drogheda, Balrothery, Trim, Celbridge, Rathdown, Rathdrum, Gorey, Enniscorthy, Wexford, New Ross, Carlow, &c., without apparently causing any extension of the disease in any of these districts, a result which is mainly due to the vigilance of the medical officers of health, who, by the preventive measures of efficient vaccination, and prompt isolation of infected persons, succeeded in preventing small-pox gaining a hold upon their districts.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion, I beg to acknowledge with thanks the aid I received from Sir Charles Cameron (Superintendent Medical Officer of Health for Dublin) and from Mr. Nally, of the Public Health Office, in supplying me with information from the office records; to Dr. Marshall Day, of Cork-street Hospital, and Dr. Maguire, of the Hardwicke Hospital, for the accurate observation which they made for me of the results of vaccination, and for their kindness and courtesy in supplying me at all times with numerous returns and much information with regard to the small-pox patients treated in hospital.

I have the honour to be,

Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

T. J. STAFFORD, Medical Inspector.

To the Local Government Board, Ireland.

NO 2.—REPORT OF DR. C. J. CLIBBORN.

Belfast, April 2nd, 1895.

GENTLEMEN,

I have the honour to forward, for your information, the following Report on Small-pox in Ulster for the year beginning April 1st, 1894, and ending March 31st, 1895, with analysis of cases for that period.

I beg to remain,

Your most obedient servant,

CUTHBERT J. CLIBBORN,

Medical Inspector,

To the Local Government Board, Ireland.

During the year beginning April 1st, 1894, and ending March 31st, 1895, 64 cases of small-pox occurred in Ulster, of which number 11 died, and the remainder, 53, made good recoveries.

The first in date was a girl named N. S., resident in Belfast, and occurred on October 18th, 1894.

The large majority of the cases were in Newry Union, chiefly in the town of Newry; 52 cases out of a total of 64 occurred in this union, and of this number 41 were urban cases, the remaining 11 cases were from the surrounding dispensary districts, viz., Mullaghglass, Forkhill, Donaghmore, and Meigh; all except one were admitted into hospital at Newry Workhouse; this was a private case, and medical officer could not certify that requirements of Sec. 141 of Public Health Act, 1878, as to proper isolation could not be carried out: this case ended fatally.

Small-pox first occurred in Belfast, but during period covered by this report there were only seven cases, six of which were treated in Belfast Workhouse Hospital, the other was treated at patient's house; all proper precautions were taken as to isolation of patient.

Lurgan Union had 3 cases noted during same period; Tanderagee town, situated in Banbridge Union, one case, and Cavan Union one case, from Bellanagh Dispensary District.

Small-pox is seldom absent from Belfast, though from the excellent precautions taken by Sanitary Authority, under the advice and carried out by their Medical Superintendent Officer of Health, Dr. Whittaker, and Mr. Conway Scott, Executive Sanitary Officer, it has not spread to any extent. From 1st January, 1893, to March 31st, 1894, 20 cases occurred in Belfast.

Small-pox in Belfast is generally imported from larger cities of Scotland and England, generally speaking Glasgow and Liverpool; in addition, this year, Dublin has proved a further source of danger.

The precautions taken in Belfast to prevent the spread of the disease are of the following nature.

In Belfast Workhouse grounds a most perfect steam disinfecting apparatus has been provided at considerable expense, and the Urban Sanitary Authority have entered into arrangements with the Rural Sanitary Authority to have use of this apparatus, and, when considered more advisable, clothes and bedding of affected persons are burned.

All persons and articles in the houses where disease occurs are thoroughly disinfected; the method used by Mr. Scott for disinfecting persons and houses is by means of Mr. Scott's patent disinfecting apparatus, in which hot carbolic vapour is used, without any water, and only the purest form of fine clear carbolic acid is made use of, he being of opinion that this is more efficacious than sulphur. All disinfection is carried out by sanitary sub-officers who have been specially trained under Mr. Scott's personal supervision.

For conveyance of patients to hospital Rural Sanitary Authority provide ambulance, which, with driver and assistant, is thoroughly disinfected after conveying any case to small-pox hospital situated in workhouse ground.

For hospital accommodation in Belfast special wards have been provided, with special medical attendant and nurses.

In all cases re-vaccination and early primary vaccination were recommended in district where disease may have been.

The following is the order in which small-pox occurred in Ulster, and as far as possible source of infection is mentioned:—

The first case was that of N. S., already referred to, living in Belfast, aged five; she apparently contracted the disease from some lodgers in the house, who had recently come from London, passing through Glasgow and Edinburgh; one of these lodgers left Belfast soon after for Liverpool and was admitted into hospital there for small-pox.

The next portion of Ulster visited with small-pox was Letterkenny, County Donegal, in the case of E. M., aged sixteen years, Dublin; the disease in this instance was probably contracted in Dublin, as brother of patient died of small-pox in Cork-street Fever Hospital, Dublin, a short time before patient arrived in Letterkenny. E. M. travelled to Letterkenny, via Derry, where he remained for one night at a hotel. He was first seen by Dr. Carre, Medical Officer of Letterkenny Dispensary District, on second day of disease; rash began to show on or about 4th day, and soon became confluent and of a most severe and malignant type. There were not any marks of primary vaccination. Patient was at once removed to fever hospital. All infected clothing and bedding burned; premises disinfected; nurses and others in attendance or in communication with patient re-vaccinated; vaccination and re-vaccination generally through the district attended to.

Your general Inspector, Mr. Kelly, visited Letterkenny with me in connection with this case, to see that isolation was as complete as possible, and had interview with Dr. Carre, Medical Officer of Health, as to necessary precautions to be taken to prevent spread of disease. The patient died on December 22nd, 1894, tenth day of disease; this man, and his brother who died in Dublin, were never vaccinated. The father of E. M., who travelled down to Letterkenny with him, stated he did not believe in vaccination.

I visited Derry with regard to the fact that Mr. M. and his father had been in a hotel there the day before E. M. got ill in Letterkenny, and having communicated with Mr. Robinson, Executive Sanitary Officer, saw that hotel where they had stopped for one night was thoroughly disinfected.

The next place where small-pox made its appearance was Cavan Union, where, as in Letterkenny Union, only one case occurred. Disease apparently was contracted in Dublin, as patient, named G. P., aged 25, Bellanagh Dispensary District, had been on a visit to Dublin, and soon after his return was seized with usual symptoms of small-pox; he was at once removed to hospital and precautions taken to prevent spread of disease, by destruction of clothing and bedding, isolation of patient and enforcing early primary vaccination, and re-vaccinating those willing to submit to operation; up to date no second case has occurred.

Date of this case was 14th January, 1895.

The next place attacked was Newry; the disease evidently was brought from Dublin; this portion of Ulster suffered more severely than any other. The history, given as follows, shows clearly how important is the early detection of infectious disease and the usefulness of the Infectious Disease (Notification) Act.

A man named H. P., a native of Newry, who was living for some time in Dublin, following his trade as a mason, returned to his house in Bell's-row, Newry, where his father and mother, his married sister and three children, with two brothers, lived. One of these brothers, M. P., was employed in Mr. W's. mill, Edward-street, Newry, as a hackler in the flax machine room; one of the three children, aged twenty-six months, took ill of an eruptive disease, and died on the 11th January, 1895, shortly after the arrival of H. P. from Dublin. This child, it was stated, was vaccinated in Scotland. After the above death, M. P., H. P.'s brother, was observed to have an eruption on his hands and face, which his fellow workers thought was some ordinary skin disease, but from inquiries I made it was evidently small-pox of a mild form. A man named H. P., who worked next to him, contracted small-pox, and a man named J. M'G., who as foreman in Mr. W's. mill had to be in contact with him and had to examine his work, also was attacked with small-pox, both these men were admitted into small-pox wards of Newry Workhouse Fever Hospital.

It is to be noted that all Mr. W's. employees who afterwards were attacked with small-pox were either fellow workers in this room or had been in contact with the P. family, directly or indirectly.

I visited the medical man who had seen the child already referred to. He was called in to see it when in a dying state, covered with an eruption and suffering from laryngeal trouble; no reference was made to the eruption. He saw it late at night when moribund, and he is now strongly of opinion (in which I agree with him) that the child had small-pox.

It was also ascertained that H. P., the man who came from Dublin, was not feeling well at date of his return. All the cases that afterwards occurred in Newry or surrounding districts could be traced either directly or indirectly to this original source of infection.

On the outbreak of the disease in Newry, the Local Government Board ordered me, as Medical Inspector, to visit Newry and advise the Sanitary Authorities as to precautions to be taken to prevent its spread. The Urban and Rural Sanitary Authorities gave all possible aid. Stations for vaccination and early primary vaccination were opened and largely availed of. The two Dispensary Medical Officers—Drs. Crossle and Smartt—re-vaccinated between 5,000 and 6,000 persons, and private medical practitioners also vaccinated large numbers. It is thought that nearly all the adult population have been re-vaccinated as well as children over prescribed age. In Warrenpoint, a watering-place close to Newry, and in constant communication with that town, about 400 have been re-vaccinated.

The next portion of Ulster attacked was the town of Lurgan, where the disease broke out on February 9th, 1895, in the case of a girl named E. M'C., aged 17, who appears to have contracted the disease in the following manner:—A gentleman, by profession superintendent agent for an insurance society, came to Lurgan from Dublin. He became ill and was confined to bed for four or five days in a small hotel in Lurgan, where E. M'C.'s sister attended on him. It was ascertained that he suffered from a suspicious eruption. A medical man saw him, but was doubtful as to the disease being small-pox. Recent events have, however, led him to conclude it was small-pox, and of this there can be, I think, no reasonable doubt. E. M'C. was in constant communication with her sister who attended on this gentleman. She contracted small-pox of a very bad type; she had only one very indifferent mark of primary vaccination. She refused to go to hospital, and those in care of her refused to believe that it was small-pox, although every endeavour was made by their own medical man, and Dr. Agnew, Medical Officer for Lurgan, to have her removed to hospital. The surroundings of the case were not such as to enable the Sanitary Authority to enforce removal under Public Health Act, Sec. 141. Eventually, the case ended fatally.

The Sanitary Authorities—both Urban and Rural—on hearing of E. M'C.'s case took prompt steps to prevent, as far as possible, spread of disease. Special small-pox wards were prepared, nurses engaged, and the provisions of the Infectious Disease (Notification) Act, which had been recently allowed to remain in abeyance, were strictly enforced. Notices were publicly posted through the town, and copies of sections of Public Health Act respecting infected persons exposing themselves in public were posted in the town and surrounding rural districts, and additional hours were fixed for early primary vaccination and re-vaccination.

Up to date only two fresh cases of small-pox have occurred in Lurgan; both directly or indirectly can be traced to contact with E. M'C.

On 13th March, 1895, the disease made its appearance in Tanderagee town (urban sanitary district), Banbridge Union. The case was that of a man named J. L.; he probably contracted the disease from having been in Newry and associated there with persons who may have been exposed to infection; he was removed at once to Banbridge Workhouse Fever Hospital. Clothing and bedding burned, house disinfected, early primary vaccination and re-vaccination carried out as fully as possible. Up to this no fresh case has occurred.

In February and March three cases of small-pox occurred in Belfast; on this occasion the infection came from Dublin, contrary to the general rule, infection in Belfast coming generally from Glasgow or Liverpool.

Attached to this report will be found a tabulated statement of several cases of small-pox that occurred in Ulster during the period covered by this report, and an examination of it will show the importance of medical officers following out strictly the directions laid down in the Local Government Board's circular of 30th August, 1880, as to vaccinating by four insertions. In no one instance has a case of small-pox been observed where the patient showed four typical vaccine marks, and in one case only where there were three such marks and this patient had only been recently vaccinated and the disease was of the very mildest form. Where there were two good marks the disease was, as a rule, discrete; where there were two faint and indifferent marks it was of a much more severe form; where there was only one vaccine mark the disease was always severe and generally confluent.

Where no sign of primary vaccination was present, in all the cases, but one, death occurred; in no case where there was even one mark of vaccination did death occur.

I am glad in connection with this Report to be able to add that within the last three years a large number of public vaccinators, who formerly only performed operation of vaccination in one or two places, now follow out strictly the directions of the Local Government Board. This course in their case is the more to be commended as in several instances it represents a loss of fees to them, as some of the public, rather than allow their children to be vaccinated properly, go to private medical practitioners who for a small fee vaccinate them, but not in accordance with circular of Local Government Board on the subject already referred to; this objection on the part of the public is every year becoming less.

Another fact that may be learnt from this epidemic is the highly infectious nature of small-pox and the necessity of strictly enforcing complete isolation, as in several cases a very slight contact with the disease or where disease had been was sufficient to convey it to others, even though the person who conveyed it was not himself or herself attacked by it.

No. 3.—REPORT of Dr. T. J. BROWNE.

Limerick, 8th April, 1895.

SIR,
Herewith I send report on Small-pox in my district. It will be observed that the disease was introduced into the district on four different occasions, the last about ten days ago. On the three previous occasions the disease was promptly stamped out, only two persons, in addition to the first case, having contracted the disease. The usual preventive measures were promptly adopted and strictly carried out in each case.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

THOS. J. BROWNE.

The Secretary,

Local Government Board, Dublin.

REPORT ON SMALL-POX in MUNSTER DISTRICT during YEAR
1894, and FIRST QUARTER of 1895.

During the above mentioned period there was no general outbreak of small-pox in the Munster district. Six cases of the disease were reported, distributed as shown by the annexed table. There were four distinct outbreaks. In two of these the infection was imported from Dublin, and one other person contracted the disease from one of the patients. Another of the cases came from South Wales, and was admitted to hospital at Waterford where an inmate of the hospital contracted the disease. The last case is that of a fisherman belonging to a French fishing boat recently arrived at Dingle. The six persons attacked were all adults, and all recovered with the exception of the last case, which is still under treatment in the Dingle Workhouse Hospital. The disease was of the discrete or semi-confluent form in all the cases. All the patients are said to have been vaccinated during infancy although the vaccination marks generally were very indistinct. One of the cases, a man over 60 years of age, had been re-vaccinated when 25 years old.

THOS. J. BROWNE,

Local Government Inspector.

8th April, 1895.

November,	Rathkenale,	1	Vaccinated in infancy. (Recovered).	This was the case of a medical student who developed the disease a few days after arriving from Dublin where he had been in contact with small-pox cases. Aged 24 years.
December,	KilmacThomas,	2	Vaccinated in infancy. (Recovered).	The first case was that of a servant who developed the disease a few days after arriving from Dublin. She was removed to hospital where the nurse who attended her contracted the disease. Patients aged 24 and 28 years.

No. 4.—REPORT of DR. R. CLEMENTS.

REPORT on the OCCURRENCE of CASES of SMALL-POX in the CONNAUGHT DISTRICT.

Galway, 6th April, 1895.

GENTLEMEN,

I have the honour to submit the following report on the occurrence of cases of small-pox in the Connaught district during the year ended on the 31st March, 1895.

For several years this province was entirely free from small-pox. It was introduced in May, 1893, into the Killala district of the Killala Union by a man who returned to his native place from working in Derbyshire, England, and who on the day of his return to Killala became ill with small-pox. Only one person, his sister, contracted the disease from him. These two persons were isolated completely in the Killala Union Hospital. The measures taken by the Sanitary Authority of Killala were followed by the complete disappearance of small-pox, and no further case has since occurred in that locality.

The continuance of an epidemic of small-pox in Dublin for so long a time was likely to be followed by its extension to other parts of Ireland. In the year to which this report relates such extension of small-pox from Dublin occurred in the following places in this district:—Portamna, County Galway; Longford, County Longford; Sligo, County Sligo.

I now give the detailed information regarding this occurrence of small-pox in each of these places.

PORTUMNA.

History of its introduction :—J. S., a pensioner, aged 35 years, was admitted to the Portumna Union Hospital on the 15th July, 1894, suffering from severe febrile symptoms attended by a copious livid eruption on the entire body. This was at first considered by the medical attendants to be a severe case of measles. The doubt as to the nature of the illness may have arisen from the fact that children in the lodging-house where he stayed were at the time suffering from measles. He came from Southampton, in England, through Dublin where he remained several days, and arrived at Portumna some time before the 12th or 13th July, having walked a considerable distance. His illness commenced on the 13th. He died, three days after his admission to hospital, on the 18th July.

On the 9th August, 1894, P. G., a workhouse inmate, who had been the male attendant on the former patient, developed an attack of modified small-pox. On the 4th September, W. C., and on the 6th September, P. M., also developed attacks of modified small-pox. These were also workhouse inmates.

Action of the Sanitary Authority.—The clothing in the lodging-house where the disease first developed was destroyed by fire, and the house was disinfected and limewashed. Strict isolation of the several cases, as soon as they were recognised, was resorted to and maintained. The medical officers attended to vaccination and re-vaccination. The disease did not extend beyond the three workhouse inmates, and since September there has been no further case in Portumna or in its vicinity. There was only the one fatal case.

IN LONGFORD.

History of its introduction :—W. M., a journeyman tailor in Longford, visited Dublin on leave, and stayed with relatives there. His visit extended from 24th December, 1894, till 29th December, 1894, when he returned to Longford. He became unwell on the 10th January, 1895, and the small-pox eruption appeared on the 12th. Dr. Cochrane, the present workhouse medical officer, saw him on the 15th. He at once recognised the disease, and took the necessary precautions as to isolation of the patient in the Longford Union Hospital and the destruction by fire of his clothing; these were carried out on the same day. The district medical officer vaccinated or re-vaccinated the other residents in the same house.

Action of the Sanitary Authority :—The Sanitary Authority received into their hospital not only the sick boy but the other boys who had been working with him. Separate places were provided in the hospital for these. Strict isolation of all these persons was maintained. All the persons who had received clothing from this workshop since the return of W. M. from Dublin were communicated with by the executive sanitary officer. The house where this case occurred was practically "boycotted" by the public, and the sanitary sub-officer who burned the clothing continued to inquire after the health of the inmates. The medical officer of the district gave unremitting attention to the vaccination of all persons in the district seeking the protection of vaccination. After detention in hospital under observation for a period of three weeks, and there being no appearance of having contracted the disease, the apprentices were discharged. W. M. recovered, and in due course was also discharged. Since that time no further case has occurred in Longford, or in its vicinity.

SLIGO.

History of its introduction.—M.A.H., wife of an engine fitter in the railway workshops, Sligo, visited Dublin, staying there for a period of three weeks, from the 22nd December, 1894, till the 12th January, 1895, when she returned to Sligo. She had been staying with a relative and had visited the house of another relative where the family had been removed to an hospital in Dublin suffering from small-pox. After her return from Dublin she suffered from an eruption on her skin which she did not consider serious and which appears to have received but little attention. Her husband, J.H., became ill with small-pox on the 6th February, the eruption appeared on the 8th or 9th. In the course of a few days (three or four) the children, S.A.H., aged 18, W.H., aged 14, M.H., aged 6, and H.H., aged one year, also developed the eruption of small-pox. With one exception the entire family of 10 persons were admitted to the Sligo County Fever Hospital on the 11th February. The one exception, S.A.H., had left home to go to service in the County Roscommon about the 30th January. She was brought back to Sligo on the 14th February, and also admitted to the hospital suffering from small-pox. The eruption was then fully developed and had been out for two or three days.

Action of the Sanitary Authority.—The entire clothing and furniture of this family were destroyed by fire, and the premises disinfected and lime-washed. The medical and sanitary officers were instructed to keep up a careful supervision over any cases of sickness in the immediate locality. The patients were isolated in the hospital and all other patients removed to another available hospital. Unremitting attention was given by the medical officers to vaccination and re-vaccination of all persons seeking it. The four members of the family who were not ill when received into hospital were separated from the others and have not since been ill. All the patients recovered, and there has not, up to the present date, been any further case in the town of Sligo.

A SECOND INTRODUCTION OF SMALL-POX IN THE COUNTY OF SLIGO.

History of its introduction.—A young man named M'I, one of the resident pupils in the Primrose Grange School, four miles from Sligo, went to Dublin on the 19th of January, 1895, to attend an examination in Trinity College. He stayed some days in Dublin, and returned to the school on the 29th January. At the beginning of February he was ailing, and developed an eruption on the skin, which was considered of slight importance. On the 17th February four other resident pupils had developed modified small-pox. These were isolated in the school, and placed under the care of a trained nurse.

The precautions taken.—In addition to isolating the four sick boys, and the use of disinfectants—all the other pupils, including M'I, were re-vaccinated. To avoid a general dissemination of small-pox, the school was continued, and the boys kept under observation therein for a period of three weeks. The only case of re-vaccination that was not successful was that of M'I. No further extension of disease has occurred in the school up to this date. Those who were not ill have been permitted to return to their homes, and further precautions will be adopted before the school will be re-opened.

D. H., aged 19, who had been in the habit of visiting the town of Sligo, resident at Streda, near Grange, about 11 miles from Sligo, was admitted to the Sligo Hospital on the 25th February, in the early stage of an eruption resembling small-pox; the eruption was followed by a few vesicles. On the 6th March this boy had a rigor, and developed another eruption followed by a crop of vesicles which followed the course of modified small-pox. The history of his case has not been clearly traced, and the only fact bearing on it known is that he had been in Sligo the whole of the 20th February, the fair-day. He is now convalescent, and no other case has been heard of in the County Sligo since.

I desire to bear testimony to the anxiety shown, and the attention which has been given to the occurrence of these cases by the several Sanitary Authorities, and by the several workhouse and dispensary medical officers concerned. The total number of cases was 12, and the mortality only one. All the persons had been, with the exception of one unvaccinated child, vaccinated in infancy. The marks exhibited were not in any case up to the standard of perfect vaccination.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

The occurrence of these cases of small-pox in this district and the action taken with regard to them appear to me important as showing the necessity for a strict adherence to the course recommended by your Board in your circular No. 74 M. of 3rd July, 1894, as the most effectual means for preventing the spread of small-pox, and the successful result that may be looked for following that action.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,

R. CLEMENTS, M.D., Inspector.
